Bob Ward Has Grand Champion Of Swine Show

CHAMPION MARKET HOG — Bob Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Ward, Route 2, Ashville, is shown after he received the trophy for champion middleweight market hog at Tuesday's Pickaway County Fair. Ward's hog was later declared grand champion market hog. He received a trophy from Circleville Lumber.

Bob Ward, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rod Ward, Route 2, Ashville, exhibited the champion market hog in the 1968 Pickaway County Fair.

The hog show this year, judged by Herb Barnes, was the biggest ever, according to George Hamrick, Pickaway County Extension Agent. There were 234 entries in the individual competition and 27 pens of three entries.

Ward advanced to the championship finals when his hog was named champion middleweight. Lightweight market hog winner, John Schleich, won reserve championship.

Champion pen of three exhibitor is Brad Luckhart, winner of the heavyweight division. Reserve champion is the pen of Bruce McFadden, runner up in heavyweight class.

ESTABLISHMENTS donating trophies for the show were Circleville Lumber, L.M. Butch, Pickaway County NFO, Teays Valley FFA, Ralston Purina, Eshelman and Sons Mills, Bowling Stockyards and George Rowers. Here is the complete list of winners for the show.

Lightweight Market Hogs — 1. John Schleich, 2. Teddy Rogers, 3. Dave Schleich, 4. Mark Howard, 5. Joe Howard, 6. Jim Barr, 7. Joyce Barr, 8. Jack Brinker, 9. Jack Brinker, 10. Dan Brinker.

Final Postal Action Slated

House OK, LBJ Signature Needed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to exempt postal workers from a government personnel cut-back has cleared two more congressional hurdles en route to probable passage.

The measure zipped through a conference committee and the full Senate Tuesday and was sent to the House today for final action.

There was no debate as the Senate stamped approval on the measure which some members have called "blackmail."

Postmaster Gen. W. Marvin Watson has told Congress that if it does not exempt his 728,400 employees before adjourning for the political conventions, the first in a series of service curtailments will begin Saturday.

These include cutting Saturday window service to a maximum of two hours, putting street box collections on Sunday schedules and closing the first of several hundred fourth class branches.

Under President Johnson's 10 per cent income surtax bill, which includes a $6-billion cut in federal spending, all government agencies must cut back to the June 1966 manpower level by filling only three in every four vacancies.

This would have trimmed the postal staff by more than 83,000 workers at a time when Watson says the Post Office workload is increasing.

The postal department is the first and the largest of almost two dozen government agencies expected to ask Congress to exempt or at least 14,000 more people.

Tornado Hits In Florida; 2 Are Killed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy thunderstorms swept the midcontinent today and lashed half a dozen states with soaking rains, hail and occasionally damaging winds.

The severe weather erupted late Tuesday as much cooler air rolled over the northern plains. The mercury fell into the 40s and 50s early today across the region.

In the southeast, a man and his wife were killed when a tornado ripped through a retirement trailer park in Sarasota County, Fla., picked up their 60-foot mobile home and carried it 150 feet before slamming it into a second trailer.

Tornadoes also churned out of the severe thunderstorms raking the plains and midwest late Tuesday and early today. Although any which touched down generally did so in open country, one twister smashed a set of farm buildings in the eastern Nebraska area near Stromsburg, 40 miles northeast of Grand Island.

While temperatures barely reached 70 in northern sections of the plains Tuesday, parts of Kansas sizzled around 100. The mercury hit 104 at Russell and 101 at both Dodge City and Garden City.

Sterling Lamb Says PD Must Accept Patrol Bonds

Circleville Municipal Court Judge Sterling M. Lamb has sent a five page letter to Mayor Richard Gerhardt questioning the legality of his action ordering police not to serve as deputy clerks of the court.

The mayor issued a directive effective August 1 stating that members of the police department will not accept bond or waiver money from persons arrested by the Ohio State Highway Patrol for traffic law violations. The directive applies only to the hours between 4 p.m. when the court closes and midnight.

The mayor contends the duties of handling the patrol cases overburdens the department during those hours.

At the request of the Judge, O. Charles Hosterman, city solicitor, has given a verbal legal opinion governing the situation.

ACCORDING to the judge, Hosterman is of the opinion that the court can require the city police to continue to accept appearance bonds for arrests made by the Ohio State Patrol. He has further stated that refusal of any city police officer to do so would constitute an act of contempt of court.

Judge Lamb says that a written directive in conformity with Hosterman's opinion will be prepared by the court and issued to members of the Circleville Police Department Thursday if the mayor's directive still remains in effect.

Judge Lamb informed the mayor that a recent article concerning the directive which appeared in The Herald left the impression that members of the Police Department perform the CONTRARY to current rumors, there was no jail break from the Pickaway County jail over the weekend, according to Sheriff Dwight Radcliff. Apparent cause of the rumor was an episode in Ashville which involved sheriff's deputies in a chase with Charles Keaton who is wanted by military authorities for being absent without leave. Rumor had it that Maynard Keaton Jr., charged with larceny by trick and released on $3,000 bond several weeks ago, had escaped from jail. The chase in Ashville, which involved three cruisers, failed to result in Charles Keaton's arrest, but did lead to the capture of two of his companions.

He went on to explain that the duties of the police in accepting the patrol cases were limited to writing the amount of the bond on an affidavit prepared by the arresting officer of the Ohio

State Highway Patrol, swearing the officer, signing the affidavit, accepting the bond money and giving the defendant a receipt. The judge says the whole procedure should take about three minutes.

There were a couple of "scratches" in the officials at the Pickaway County Fair races. Mrs. Forrest Short substituted for her daughter, Miss Ann Short, as a clerk. Her youngest daughter, Mrs. Mary Claire Wilson was the other clerk.

Also scratched for the first two races was Glenn McCoy, Pickaway County Fair chairman. McCoy was late in arriving at the grounds. John Fissell, race secretary, pinched for McCoy as associate judge until he arrived.

Winning the door prizes yesterday were Harold Bumgarner, who received a gift certificate donated by T.K. Brunner and Son Jewelers, and Mrs. W. E. Clark, who received the AM-FM radio donated by the Agricultural Society.

Roger Huston, the young race announcer from Xenia, said the Pickaway County Fair is the only racing event in Ohio where he spends 2½ hours driving to the races and only an hour and 45 minutes working. Presiding Judge Robert Steele keeps the races moving at a fast pace. Steele is business manager at Scioto Downs.

The Pickaway 4-H Band, under the direction of Drexel Poling, provided music for the race fans in between heats Tuesday. The band, organized and directed by Poling for several years since its inception, plays several concerts during the fair in addition to playing at the races. It is a fine group.

Move Marks 1st Penetration Of Stronghold

SAIGON (AP) — A task force of armored American gunboats, helicopter gunships and South Vietnamese marines plunged deep into the fertile Mekong Delta to raid a Viet Cong base camp. Field reports today said at least 90 of the enemy had been killed and the action was continuing.

The Vietnamese Marines reported seizing an arsenal containing 62 weapons, 423 mortar rounds and more than 12,000 rounds of small arms ammunition.

The only allied casualties reported were two South Vietnamese wounded.

The assault was made Tuesday 92 miles southwest of Saigon, along a tributary of the Cai Lon River 34 miles east of the Gulf of Thailand.

A military spokesman said it was the first allied penetration of the area of the southern Mekong Delta which has been dominated by the Viet Cong for years.

The allied commanders "had good information they would get some action down there," the spokesman said.

Most of the damage to the Viet Cong apparently was done by the U.S. Navy's 60-foot Monitor gunboats and by armored troop carriers after the Vietnamese marines had cornered the enemy in a bunker complex.

U.S. Army helicopter gunships also raked the enemy positions with machine guns and rockets. About 1,000 U.S. infantrymen from the 9th Division, swept through another area about two miles to the east but reported little contact.

Elsewhere, only light, scattered skirmishes were reported. They included three small fights on the outskirts of Saigon in which South Vietnamese troops said they killed seven enemy soldiers, captured six and seized 18 weapons and large quantities of ammunition.

Northwest of the capital, American strategic bombers flew their 50th mission in seven days against suspected North Vietnamese troop concentrations menacing Saigon and key towns near it.

Accused Killer Of Policemen Called 'Patriot'

CLEVELAND (AP) — Black militant Fred "Ahmed" Evans, charged with the deaths of three Cleveland policemen, drew praise from Negro leaders Tuesday night as a patriot and pilgrim.

"I think there are a couple of hundred more Ahmeds ready to express themselves in the great American tradition, with guns," Chunn said at a meeting in an East Cleveland church.

Evans, 37, is charged with first-degree murder in the sniper shooting of three policemen during last week's disturbances in Cleveland. Seven Negro civilians were killed during violence that followed the shootings.

"The knowledge of our grave responsibility caused us no small suffering. We well knew of the heated discussions in the press. The anguish of those involved in the problem touched us also. We studied and read all we could. We consulted eminent persons. And we sought in prayer the aid of the Holy Spirit in interpreting the divine law which flows from the inner needs of human love, from the essential structure, and from the personal dignity of the wedded couple.

"We were guided also by the feeling of charity, of pastoral concern for married Christians. Finally, our labor was accompanied by hope—hope that this document will be accepted for its truth, hope above all that Christian married couples will understand that its teaching is but the manifestation of their true love, an imitation of the love of Christ for the church."

The brief statement was issued in various languages, and the French text acknowledged that the birth control decision was the most serious the Pope has made since he was elected five years ago.

But dissent voiced against the Pope's refusal to modify the church's traditional position raised the possibility that many of the world's 500 million Roman Catholics would disobey his injunctions.

His encyclical also sharpened the division between liberal Catholics who favor birth control and conservatives opposed to it. And it also appeared to be a block on the road to ecumenical cooperation with other churches that sanction contraception.

Some predicted that the Pope's ruling would cause an exodus from the church. But others felt that Catholics already practicing birth control would shrug off the encyclical and stay in the church.

Municipal Court Operations Are Aired by Bar

Circleville Municipal Court was established Jan. 1, 1954 at the request of the members of the Pickaway County Bar Assn. At a regular monthly bar meeting held sometime ago, the bar discussed with two members of Ohio Legislature the question of dissolving the Circleville Municipal Court and opening a county court.

The reason for the discussion is the alleged lack of cooperation relative to paying money to the Law Library Assn. from certain types of Criminal cases governed by State Statutes, according to Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb.

There is also a lack of cooperation between the city council and court relative to appropriation of funds for salaries and other necessary expenses, the judge said. The city pays 60 per cent of the salary of the judge, acting judges, clerk and bailiff and the county pays 40 per cent of the salaries.

IF MORE cooperation is not forthcoming, the court has no apparent alternative except to pursue further to the legislature by the Bar Association the dissolution of the present municipal court and to open a county court, Judge Lamb stated.

Such a court would exclude the city of Circleville. It would also exclude the city from receiving all funds it now receives from the court except from fines and costs derived from city ordinance cases.

Based on the 1967 figures, this would be $8,834, not enough to pay the annual salary of two policemen, according to figures

Obstetrician To Open Office

On Thursday morning Dr. Emily Lutz will begin her practice in Circleville as a gynecologist and obstetrician. The first Circleville doctor to specialize in this field, she will have her office at 407 E. Main St.

A Circleville native, Dr. Lutz has many ties with this area. She is making her home with her uncle, D. A. Yates. A sister Mrs. Robert Brehmer Jr. (Marilyn) teaches mathematics at Circleville High School. Her twin sister, Mrs. Richard L. Dunham lives in Albany, N.Y. William Lutz, her only brother, resides in Woodland Heights, Calif., and he also is a high school teacher.

Her goal all through elementary, high school and college was to become a doctor. After graduation from Ohio State University she was a teacher there for one year before attending its medical school.

She earned a bachelor of arts and master of arts degree in medicine. For two years she taught at the University of Illinois.

Upon completion of her internship and residency she became an assistant professor at the University of California Medical Center where she taught junior and senior medical students.

She plans to teach at Ohio State University at least one day each week.

compiled by the court.

In the opinion of Judge Lamb, if the city lost the revenue from the court, it would have to greatly curtail its operations.

During the calendar year of 1967, the sum of $35,564 was disbursed to the city from Highway Patrol traffic cases. This figure does not include the several thousand dollars also paid to the city in court costs from Highway Patrol cases.

Last year the city received the sum of $57,510.12 from court costs from criminal cases. The amount of cash receipts collected by the court during 1967 from criminal and civil cases amounted to $165,902.70. Of this amount, the sum of $101,909.07 was paid to the city of Circleville.

THIS compares to a gross amount collected by the city in 1953 of $5,900, this being the year preceding the opening of the present municipal court. The mayor was by law entitled to keep all the court costs from traffic cases filed under state statutes. Since 1954, all court costs in criminal cases are paid to the city.

The gross amount of $8,834 was collected from fines and bond forfeitures from traffic cases filed by the city police and other criminal cases filed under city ordinances for the year 1967.

It is quite evident the bulk of revenue received by the city comes from highway patrol cases.

During the existence of Circleville Municipal Court, it has collected in cash receipts the sum of $1,184,160.42. Of this amount, the sum of $701,468.73 has been paid to the city of Circleville. This figure includes the sum of $330,319.45 collected in court costs from criminal cases, $35,980.95 from traffic ticket violations, $23,488.70 court costs from civil cases and $450 for performing marriages.

Judge . . .

THE judge stated that the fact that the police department handled over $57,000 this past year has no significance except for showing the total amount of bond money posted.

He said the number of cases is the issue, not the amount of money.

He pointed out that councilman John Jenkins had requested the court to keep a record of the number of Highway Patrol cases posted in the police department for a 30 day period.

The record was kept covering the period from April 15 to May 14 between the hours of 4 p.m. and midnight. A total of 99 bonds were posted during this 30 day period, an average of 3.3 bonds per day. On four of those days, there were no bonds posted at all.

Judge Lamb also pointed out to the mayor that in Chillicothe, Lancaster, Washington C.H., Hillsboro, Wilmington and Athens police accepted the bond money.

Rules of practice and procedure in all traffic cases will be drastically changed Jan. 1, 1969, the judge said. One of the changes will be that all persons exceeding the speed limit by 15 miles per hour will have to appear in court for a hearing instead of posting bond and having it forfeited as permitted by present law.

The judge pointed out that police will only be required to take the bonds for another five months, since most violators will be required to appear in court.

Bonsai planting is a form of Japanese art dating back generations to the 13th and 14th century. Originally it came from China and the Japanese refined the art.

It creates an illusion of age. Take seedlings, cuttings, nursery plants or naturally dwarfed plants, then prune and wire to make the picture one wishes to create.

Being so close to the Hocking Hills, we really had a lot of raw material to work with. Three things to look for are the roots, trunk and leaf. The root should be short, trunk either smooth or twisted and the leaf pattern small.

In 1958 when on the west coast, a friend started Martensen on his hobby. His first tree won the hearts of everyone there. It is a perfect example of Bonsai.

Some known Bonsai are over four hundred years old. They are passed down from father to son or grandson.

One of the responsibilities of the Junior Fair Board is to provide entertainment for the younger set during the evening hours at the fair. The board has scheduled three dances for Fair Week, all to be held from 8 to 11 p.m. in the 4-H and Grange Building.

Monday's featured card of Jerry Rasor emceeing the Metro-Nome show, drew a crowd of 260. Last night The Gears had as big a following. Next scheduled dance will be Friday when the Lapse of Time and their light show will perform.

For those of you who have never seen a light show, we suggest you attend.

The Fair Board will sponsor their annual Battle of the Bands at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Grandstands. Six bands from this area will compete for $75 first prize, $50 second and $25 third. Jerry Rasor will emcee the activities.

Bands competing the Thee Young Generation, The Good, The Band and The Ugly, Cellar Dwellers, Crimson Mist, The Routes of Life and The Break of Day.

Qualifying for the annual Pickaway County Horseshoe Tournament has started. Those who have qualified so far include Bill Jones, Warren Grover, Jeff Arledge, Joe Moore, Ray Goodman, John Wilkes, Bob Patrick, Walter Rase and Rod Wilson. Jones' score of 212 with a 72 per cent ringer accuracy tops all qualifiers. Defending champion Bob Wilkinson is exempt from qualifying.

The weatherman calls for a 30 per cent chance of showers this afternoon. In case the precipitation dampens the Lion's Club pet parade and bicycle give-away, the two events will be attempted under the grandstands, according to club representative Clarence Radcliffe.

Chairman Bill Thornton asks all bands to be at the Grandstand at 7 p.m.

Area Woman Injured in 1-Car Mishap

A Laurelville area woman was injured noon Tuesday when the car in which she was a passenger went out of control and struck the fence and gate of Hitler-Ludwig Cemetery.

Mrs. Bernie Danner, Route 2, Laurelville, was taken to Berger Hospital for treatment of bruises and lacerations, as was the driver of the vehicle, 21-year old Raymond Barror of Columbus.

Barror was south-bound on Hitler Road One, turning left onto Road Two when he lost control of the car due to excessive speed for the turn, according to sheriff's deputies. No citations were issued.

Motorcyclists Top Court Docket

Motorcyclists topped the traffic docket of Municipal Court Tuesday.

Clarence Wilkins, 26, of 525 N. Court St., and Thomas Hoffman, 19, of 170 Hayward Ave., were charged before Judge Sterling Lamb with failure to wear proper eye protection while riding a motorcycle.

Both men entered a plea of guilty and were fined $10 plus costs with the fine and costs suspended.

Jack Shaw, 23, Williamsport, was charged with squealing the tires of his car thus causing unnecessary noise. He was fined $10 plus costs.

Early Entrance Testing Standards Established

New standards for early entrance testing in Pickaway County schools have been established in accordance with recommendations from the state department of education it was announced by George D. McDowell, county superintendent.

No parent should be disappointed if a child doesn't pass the test because the standards are very high, McDowell said.

He estimated that only five per cent of the pre school youngsters taking the test will be accepted as first grade students. A child will have to have an IQ of 125 to 130 to be accepted.

Testing will begin Aug. 19 under the auspices of Mrs. Opan Sim's, county elementary supervisor.

DURING the 1967-68 and 1968-69 school years, the law established Oct. 31 as the date on which a child must be six years of age to enter the first grade.

Beginning with the 1969-70 school year, Sept. 30 is the date on which a child must be six years of age to enter the first grade.

Boards of education may not establish a later date for admission to the first grade.

Deaths

MRS. SARAH FLETCHER
Mrs. Sarah Fletcher, 67, of Columbus was dead on arrival at Riverside Methodist Hospital, Columbus, 3:10 a.m. Wednesday. She had suffered a heart attack at her home.

Born near Williamsport May 29, 1901, she was the daughter of Lafayette and Carrie Climer Downing. She lived in the New Holland community until nine months ago.

She is survived by her husband, Roy; mother, Mrs. Carrie Downing, Clarksburg; two sons, Eugene, Columbus and Lonnie, New Holland; two daughters, Mrs. William Bouchard, Kokomo, Ind. and Mrs. Phil Tripp, Columbus nine grandchildren.

Also surviving are four brothers, Wesley Downing, New Holland; Clyde, Ross and Gene Downing of Clarksburg; three sisters, Mrs. Lillian Boyer, Indiana; Mrs. Mary Ater and Mrs. Ora George, both of Clarksburg.

Services will be 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, New Holland with Rev. Robert Anderson officiating. Burial will be in Brown's Chapel Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 2 p.m. Thursday.

MR. RALPH M. NESSELL
Mr. Ralph M. Nessell, 79, of 722 S. Washington St., was dead on arrival at Berger Hospital 7 a.m. Wednesday.

Born July 20, 1889 in Ross County, he was the son of William and Etta Summers Nessell.

He was a retired millworker for the Container Corp., a veteran of World War I, member of New Holland Lodge 392 F and AM and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

His wife, Laura Oiler Nessell, preceded him in death May 27, 1968.

Survivors are one step-son, Edward Kinser; two step-daughters, Mrs. Frieda Hoffman, 415 Brown St., and Mrs. Helen Knece, Route 1, Kingston; 11 step-grandchildren, 24 stepgreat-grandchildren; two brothers, Jerry Nessell and Fred Nessell of Washington C.H.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Mace and Mrs. Nell Sollars of Washington, C.H.

Services will be 10 a.m. Saturday in the Defenbacher Funeral home with burial in Forest Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 7 p.m. Thursday.

Masonic services will be 8 p.m. Friday at the funeral home and military graveside services will be conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

although by resolution they may adopt an earlier date, McDowell said.

Upon the request of a parent or guardian, each child who will be six years of age on or before Jan. 1 of the school year for which admission is requested shall be evaluated by means of an educationally accepted standardized testing program.

McDowell emphasized that standards qualifying for admission children who are average or even somewhat above average in development and maturity would not be adopted.

Research indicated that older children have a greater chance of school success. The pre-school testing program is not compulsory for all children but is established to accommodate the requests of parents of children possessing marked high ability and maturity as compared to their chronological ages.

THE child's intellect, social and emotional maturity, verbal abilities and physical development are all considered in the testing. An interview is held with parents in an attempt to evaluate the child's background and social maturity. The first six weeks of school is considered a trial period. After the trial period, the teacher may request a re-evaluation.

Municipal Court Operations Are Aired by Bar

Circleville Municipal Court was established Jan. 1, 1954 at the request of the members of the Pickaway County Bar Assn. At a regular monthly bar meeting held sometime ago, the bar discussed with two members of Ohio Legislature the question of dissolving the Circleville Municipal Court and opening a county court.

The reason for the discussion is the alleged lack of cooperation relative to paying money to the Law Library Assn. from certain types of Criminal cases governed by State Statutes, according to Municipal Court Judge Sterling Lamb.

There is also a lack of cooperation between the city council and court relative to appropriation of funds for salaries and other necessary expenses, the judge said. The city pays 60 per cent of the salary of the judge, acting judges, clerk and bailiff and the county pays 40 per cent of the salaries.

IF MORE cooperation is not forthcoming, the court has no apparent alternative except to pursue further to the legislature by the Bar Association the dissolution of the present municipal court and to open a county court, Judge Lamb stated.

Such a court would exclude the city of Circleville. It would also exclude the city from receiving all funds it now receives from the court except from fines and costs derived from city ordinance cases.

Based on the 1967 figures, this would be $8,834, not enough to pay the annual salary of two policemen, according to figures ting in the air conditioned building where the flower show is housed this year. Don Martin of Ohio State University gave the talk.

Bonsai planting is a form of Japanese art dating back generations to the 13th and 14th century. Originally it came from China and the Japanese refined the art.

It creates an illusion of age. Take seedlings, cuttings, nursery plants or naturally dwarfed plants, then pruning and wiring to make the picture one wishes to create.

Being so close to the Hocking Hills, we really had a lot of raw material to work with. Three things to look for are the roots, trunk and leaf. The root should be short, trunk either smooth or twisted and the leaf pattern small.

In 1958 when on the west coast, a friend started Martinson on his hobby. His first tree won the hearts of everyone there. It is a perfect example of Bonsai.

Some known Bonsai are over four hundred years old. They are passed down from father to son or grandson.

One of the responsibilities of the Junior Fair Board is to provide entertainment for the younger set during the evening hours at the fair. The board has scheduled three dances for Fair Week, all to be held from 8 to 11 p.m. in the 4-H and Grange Building.

Monday's featured card of Jerry Rasor emceeding the Metro-Nome show, drew a crowd of 260. Last night The Gears had as big a following. Next scheduled dance will be Friday when the Lapse of Time and their light show will perform.

For those of you who have never seen a light show, we suggest you attend.

The Fair Board will sponsor their annual Battle of the Bands at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Grandstands. Six bands from this area will compete for $75 first prize, $50 second and $25 third. Jerry Rasor will emcee the activities.

Bands competing the Thee Young Generation, The Good, The Band and The Ugly, Cellar Dwellers, Crimson Mist, The Routes of Life and The Break of Day.

Qualifying for the annual Pickaway County Horseshoe Tournament has started. Those who have qualified so far include Bill Jones, Warren Grover, Jeff Arledge, Joe Moore, Ray Goodman, John Wilkes, Bob Patrick, Walter Rase and Rod Wilson. Jones' score of 212 with a 72 per cent ringer accuracy tops all qualifiers. Defending champion Bob Wilkinson is exempt from qualifying.

The weatherman calls for a 30 per cent chance of showers this afternoon. In case the precipitation dampens the Lion's Club pet parade and bicycle give-away, the two events will be attempted under the grandstands, according to club representative Clarence Radcliffe.

Chairman Bill Thornton asks all bands to be at the Grandstand at 7 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar F. Gahn of Jackson, O. were among the early visitors at the county fair Tuesday. The fair is not new to them for they annually make the trek from their home in Jackson County to the Pickaway County Fair.

Promotion Given Former Resident

Bruce Wilson, formerly of Circleville, has been promoted to the post of chief division engineer of Island Creek Coal Company.

Wilson joined Island Creek Jan., 1966, as senior mining engineer after graduating from Ohio State University with a bachelor of engineering degree in mining. His summer work experience prior to graduation included: Jeffrey Manufacturing Company, Columbus, International Minerals and Chemical Corporation, New Mexico; and Climax Molybdenum Company, Colorado.

Wilson's professional activities include: Green River Section of the Kentucky Society of Professional Engineers, National Society of Professional Engineers, American Institute of Mine Engineers and Western Kentucky Mining Institute. He is now a registered engineer in training, a licensed land surveyor, and a certified first class mine foreman.

Wilson lives with his wife Peggy in Madisonville.

Wildcat Rubber Strike Continues

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A wild cat strike by 20 Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. employees continued to halt tire building operations at the company's No. 2 plant here today, idling 700 workers.

Officials of Local 2, United Rubber Workers, were quoted earlier as saying the strikers had agreed Tuesday night to return to their jobs.

Early Entrance Testing Standards Established

New standards for early entrance testing in Pickaway County schools have been established in accordance with recommendations from the state department of education it was announced by George D. McDowell, county superintendent.

No parent should be disappointed if a child does not pass the test because the standards are very high, McDowell said.

He estimated that only five per cent of the pre school youngsters taking the test will be accepted as first grade students. A child will have to have an IQ of 125 to 130 to be accepted.

Testing will begin Aug. 19 under the auspices of Mrs. Opam Sims, county elementary supervisor.

DURING the 1967-68 and 1968-69 school years, the law established Oct. 31 as the date on which a child must be six years of age to enter the first grade.

Beginning with the 1969-70 school year, Sept. 30 is the date on which a child must be six years of age to enter the first grade.

Boards of education may not establish a later date for admission to the first grade.

Deaths

MRS. SARAH FLETCHER
Mrs. Sarah Fletcher, 67, of Columbus was dead on arrival at Riverside Methodist Hospital, Columbus, 3:10 a.m. Wednesday. She had suffered a heart attack at her home.

She is survived by her husband, Roy; mother, Mrs. Carrie Downing, Clarksburg; two sons, Eugene, Columbus and Lonnie, New Holland; two daughters, Mrs. William Bouchard, Kokomo, Ind. and Mrs. Phil Tripp, Columbus nine grandchildren.

Also surviving are four brothers, Wesley Downing, New Holland; Clyde, Ross and Gene Downing of Clarksburg; three sisters, Mrs. Lillian Boyer, Indiana; Mrs. Mary Ater and Mrs. Ora George, both of Clarksburg.

Services will be 1:30 p.m. Friday at the Kirkpatrick Funeral Home, New Holland with Rev. Robert Anderson officiating. Burial will be in Brown's Chapel Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 2 p.m. Thursday.

MR. RALPH M. NESSELL
Mr. Ralph M. Nessell, 79, of 722 S. Washington St., was dead on arrival at Berger Hospital 7 a.m. Wednesday.

Born July 20, 1889 in Ross County, he was the son of William and Etta Summers Nessell.

He was a retired millworker for the Container Corp., a veteran of World War I, member of New Holland Lodge 392 F and AM and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

His wife, Laura Oiler Nessell, preceded him in death May 27, 1968.

Survivors are one step-son, Edward Kinser; two step-daughters, Mrs. Frieda Hoffman, 415 Brown St., and Mrs. Helen Knece, Route 1, Kingston; 11 step-grandchildren, 24 stepgreat-grandchildren; two brothers, Jerry Nessell and Fred Nessell of Washington C.H.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Mace and Mrs. Nell Sollars of Washington, C.H.

Services will be 10 a.m. Saturday in the Deffenbaugh Funeral home with burial in Forest Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 7 p.m. Thursday.

Masonic services will be 8 p.m. Friday at the funeral home and military graveside services will be conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

although by resolution they may adopt an earlier date, McDowell said.

Upon the request of a parent or guardian, each child who will be six years of age on or before Jan. 1 of the school year for which admission is requested shall be evaluated by means of an educationally accepted standardized testing program.

McDowell emphasized that standards qualifying for admission children who are average or even somewhat above average in development and maturity would not be adopted.

Research indicated that older children have a greater chance of school success. The pre-school testing program is not compulsory for all children but is established to accommodate the requests of parents of children possessing marked high ability and maturity as compared to their chronological ages.

THE child's intellect, social and emotional maturity, verbal abilities and physical development are all considered in the testing. An interview is held with parents in an attempt to evaluate the child's background and social maturity. The first six weeks of school is considered a trial period. After the trial period, the teacher may request a re-evaluation.

Farm Income Lags

One need only be acquainted with the exodus of the rural population from the nation's farms to be aware the farmer's lot, although envied for its storybook simplicity by many city dwellers, is not a happy one.

The transition which has been taking place on America's farms is not ended. But one thing has changed very little—the family farmer still finds he comes out on the short end of the stick, even during years of unprecedented prosperity.

Periodic indices issued by the Dept. of Agriculture show an almost steady trend of farm costs rising faster than farm income. During June, for example, prices for farm machinery were up 5 percent from last year, automobiles and their supplies were also up 5 percent, and building materials had climbed 6 percent.

Prices farmers received for their products had risen only 1.5 percent during the same period.

The United States is fortunate to be one of the few nations of the world to produce more foodstuffs than it consumes, but there are a number of people who are keeping one eye on the population expansion and the other on shrinking farm acreage and wondering how much longer the favorable balance can survive.

Certainly the diminishing return on farm investment indicated by the price-cost disparity is doing nothing to improve the situation.

It may come as a sharp surprise to those who thought of the "ghettos" of the cities as the horrible example of living conditions to learn that there are three times as many substandard homes in rural America as in the cities. This estimate was made by John A. Baker, assistant secretary of agriculture, in a recent speech.

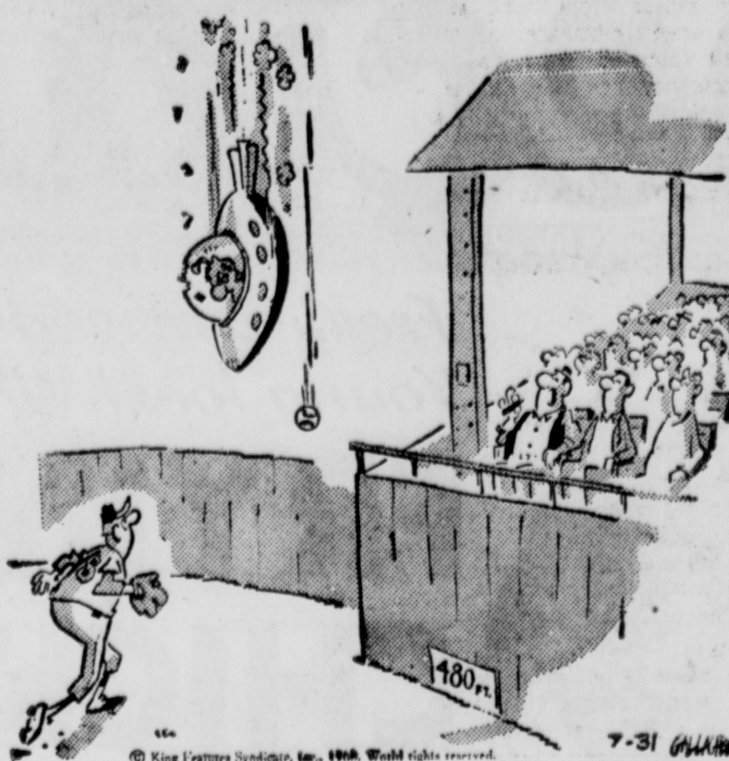

Baker also said half the nation's poverty is in the countryside.

America as a land of plenty has been best symbolized perhaps in its agricultural abundance. Nor has this abundance been selfishly protected.

The United States is the most generous food provider in the world, particularly to countries which otherwise would face major hunger disasters. But somewhere along the line the farmer must do more than break even for his toil.

The law of abundance, otherwise, will shrink the abundance available to all.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

ONE OF WILL ROGERS' greatest stories concerns a pig who swallowed a stick of dynamite, then rubbed against a building—and caused an explosion that razed four city blocks.

"That pig sure was a nuisance," drawled Rogers. "For two or three days after the explosion, he was mighty sick and tired out!"

A young student majoring in psychiatry has become so bugged on the subject that he now even translates standard pop song titles into psychiatric terms. Thus, for him, "Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered" has become "Paranoid, Distressed and Disoriented." "Try a Little Tenderness" is "Empathize." "I Got Plenty of Nuthin'" is "I've Rationalized My Deficiencies," and "I Want a Girl Just Like the Girl Who Married Dear Old Dad" is "I'm Oedipal!"

When tight-fisted Branch Rickey was managing the destinies of the St. Louis Cardinals, one star held out until the eve of opening day, and finally wangled $1,000 more than Rickey's original offer. "I beg you to make no public announcement of this deal," pleaded Rickey. "Let's keep this our little secret." "Don't worry, Mr. Rickey," the star assured him. "I'm just as ashamed of the contract as you are."

The Internal Revenue people have discovered just the thing to give a man who has everything. An audit.

Speaking of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

The liver seems like such a vague organ. What exactly does it do?

There is nothing vague about this remarkable chemical plant that is involved in every important function of the body.

The liver is one of the largest glands in the body and lies in the upper right side of the abdomen, below the diaphragm. It has two main lobes and is protected from injury by the rib cage.

A few of the activities that go on in the liver include the storage of sugar and the release of it when the rest of the body needs it. Harmful toxic poisons that accidentally circulate through the blood stream are caught in the web of the filtering system of the liver, purified and detoxified to protect other organs of the body.

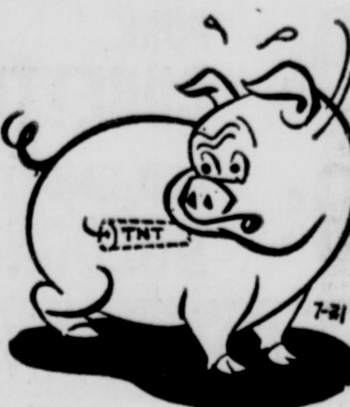

Fat and fat by-products are formed and stored in the liver. One of the important activities in the liver is the production of bile and bile salts which are then passed into the gall bladder and kept in reserve until they are needed for digestion. A tiny duct leads from the gall bladder into the small intestine. When a fatty meal is eaten a message is immediately sent to the liver and to the gall bladder that says "We need some bile for the digestion of the fat, please send immediate supply." This relay system acts a thousand times faster than an SOS message from ship to shore.

The liver plays an important role in the manufacture of the blood ingredients necessary for coagulation. It also produces red blood cells and helps to destroy those that have exhausted their function.

The liver is remarkable, but also can be handicapped by all the diseases, infections, inflammations and tumors that affect all other organs. Cirrhosis of the liver, due to chronic alcoholism, plays havoc with this piece of machinery, without which human existence can rarely continue.

The Business World

By JACK LEFFLER (For John Cumiff)

NEW YORK (AP) — A group devoted to helping Negroes move upward into management and executive jobs has been formed by Negroes who won top jobs in the retail industry.

"Twenty years ago it was considered beneath the Negro in a responsible position to extend a helping hand to those less fortunate," Walter W. Branford said. "This is no longer true."

Branford is a Negro in a responsible position who not only decided to extend his own hand but to get others to extend theirs as well.

"It's what's happening today," the tall, 40-year-old founder and chairman of the National Negro Retail Advisory Group said with an easy smile.

A marine engineer who moved into business after deciding "engineering wasn't my stick," Branford is assistant public relations director for W.T. Grant Co., a junior department store chain with about 1,100 outlets across the nation.

Branford said he decided to form the advisory group after "it became obvious to me that there was a need for a line of communication between the black community and the retail industry, and the best way to do this was to utilize those people involved in both — Negroes in retailing."

He said "there were three people at our first meeting last November. Now there are about 75. They are all Negroes and they all are in responsible jobs in retailing."

The group has several major goals. These include "Getting the retail industry to open jobs for qualified Negroes and other minorities on the management and executive levels initially and then working down to the middle supervisory and basic sales jobs. Finding job openings and finding the people to fill them. Interesting young people in jobs in retailing. Counseling retailers on how to develop communications with the black community in which they have a vested interest. And, working with the hard-core unemployed programs to bring about an increase in the upgrading of hard-core people."

Branford said the group used word of mouth, lectures, and brochures to deliver its message.

He said the group wanted to "develop a positive image of the retail industry among Negroes. We ask them to take a look at this man because we want to see that he gets a chance to move."

"We make no attempt to intimidate. An enlightened management, if made aware of the situation, will do something about it. If nothing happens, then we try to bring our person to the attention of someone who will recognize his abilities."

"What it boils down to is this: The American black man wants the same things the American white man wants."

Moscow Needs Czechs

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The idea that East Germany, Poland, Hungary, and Bulgaria, along with the Soviet Union, are particularly worried about Czechoslovakia reverting to "capitalism" is, in the light of what has been happening in the Communist world, a somewhat grisly joke. For there isn't a Communist nation outside of Red China and Albania that hasn't had to make adaptations to individualist and competitive principles simply in order to live. Far from being leaders of a counter-revolution, the Czechs and Slovaks have been the last to join a fairly obvious procession to what is known in Moscow as "Liberalism."

In Poland, the somewhat muffled revolution of 1956 which brought Wladyslaw Gomulka back to power took the State off the backs of the peasants, who had refused to produce under collectivism. To this day more than eighty per cent of the Polish land is owned by individual peasant families, who kill their livestock every time the State threatens to go back to "socialist" agriculture. When the government tried to force the peasants into State-controlled tractor-owning organizations, the main effect was to turn the farms back to reliance on hand cultivation. With production falling, the ban on manufacture of horse-drawn machines had to be revoked.

Since then the horse population of Poland has steadily increased. The State farms, which rely on tractors, are out-produced by free peasants with horses despite the fact that they pay no taxes.

Gomulka keeps talking about returning to Marxist principles in the countryside, but he doesn't dare carry through with his threats. He knows that his people depend on the individual farms for the major part of their food supply. And in Soviet Russia itself it is the peasant's private plot that keeps fat on the bones of the city dweller.

The Czechs have complained about the high price they pay for Soviet oil, and when Soviet Premier Kosygin visited Czechoslovakia last spring he was greeted by marchers with signs reading "Long live the Soviet Union, but at its own expense." These Czechoslovak grumbles about Soviet price discrimination do not set Czechoslovakia apart from the other central European satellites that have had to buy and sell in Russia.

According to the meticulous price researches of Aleksander Kutt, all of the captive nations have been paying more for Soviet oil than western European countries pay. They all have the same complaints. The East-Central European regimes did manage to get some rectification of prices in their dealings with Moscow in the mid-Sixties, but the improvement still has some distance to go.

Says Professor Kutt, in his latest study of the subject published by the Assembly of Captive European Nations, "As compared with prices charged and paid by the Soviet Union to Western Europe, the captive countries still paid more for Soviet goods, and received less from the Soviet Union for their own goods, for a total of about $2,361,000,000 in 1965 and $2,325,000,000 in 1966. The price corrections effected in 1965-1966 only prevented the Soviet illegitimate profits from trade with East-Central European countries from growing close to the three billion dollar level in 1966."

Since they all have the same hopes for an improvement of their economic position by adaptation of free market pricing to "socialist" production, and since they all have the same resentments about mistreatment in their trade look to non-economic sources for the fears in Poland, East Germany, Hungary, and Bulgaria about Czech "liberalism." The truth is that the Soviets must keep some kind of grip on Czechoslovakia in order to maintain their military supremacy in Poland, East Germany, and Hungary.

"The master of Bohemia," so Bismarck once said, "is the master of Europe."

The Czech highlands and the Carpathian mountains constitute the high ground in eastern Europe, and if this high ground were in unfriendly hands the Soviets could hardly risk their armies on the Polish, the East German or the Hungarian plains. The roads to East Berlin and Vienna would be outflanked. It is as simple as that; hence Moscow's insistence that the Czechs and the Slovaks remain a true as Poles and Hungarians to the Warsaw Pact.

It is Moscow's military pressure on Poland's Gomulka and Hungary's Kadar that is at the back of the group gang-up against the growth of Czech "liberalism." Left to themselves, nobody in any of the captive countries would care in the least what the Czechs did or did not do about their own "path to socialism."

Funds Released

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Controlling Board today approved the release of $435,650 to pay National Guardsmen for riot duty at the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus and in the cities of Akron and Cleveland.

State Finance Director Howard Collier said the board held no formal meeting, but acted by "both telephone and personally."

According to Boyle

By JOY STILLEY (For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — I'm all up in the air about a new physical fitness system called aerobics.

It's an exercise program developed by Dr. Kenneth H. Cooper, major in the U.S. Air Force, whereby certain activities are worth varying numbers of points. To keep in top condition all you have to do is acquire 30 points a week.

I've been keeping track of my track record, and it turns out I'm not only bursting with physical fitness but at the end of every week Dr. Cooper owes me at least 15 points.

He offers five points for such feats as running a mile in less than eight minutes; swimming 24 laps in under 15 minutes; cycling five miles in less than 20 minutes, and playing handball for 35 minutes.

Even 18 holes of golf is a three-point pastime and three sets of tennis bring in 4½ points. But nowhere in this can I find an evaluation of my daily calisthenics program, so I'll just have to set up my own score-card.

For instance, there's the exercise of getting through revolving doors. With someone in front and someone behind both doing their fair share of pushing it's still worth at least one point. If some lazy opportunist gets through on my push it's only fair to award me two points.

But I'll be perfectly honest about the whole thing—if I can manage to make it through on somebody else's burst of energy I won't charge the doctor at all.

Then there's the matter of catching a bus. If just plain walking is a point-reducer in the good major's ground rules, surely running for the commuter special should put a tidy three points in the bank.

Stationary running for only 12½ minutes is a five-point item under the aerobics plan. I run all day long and never get anywhere, so I should earn unlimited rewards in that category.

I don't go in much for rope-skipping, rollerskating or squash playing, but I do maneuver a grocery cart through Saturday store traffic. Counting doing the broad jump over small children lying on the floor opening cereal boxes, that exursion should put me well over my week's quota.

Tennis anyone? Not me.

No Further U.S. Bombing Cuts — Rusk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today that the United States cannot further curtail bombing in North Vietnam until that country makes a "realistic response" to U.S. moves for peace.

At a news conference Rusk declared, "we need something better than a blank wall" before further progress can be made.

Rusk denied reports that North Vietnam has been displaying restraint.

He said the United States and its allies must know from some responsible source in North Vietnam—either directly or indirectly—what would happen if the United States were to halt the remainder of the bombing of North Vietnam.

He said it is known that about 30 per cent of the trucks North Vietnam sends with supplies for South Vietnam are destroyed or damaged on the way by air attack. "We know that if we stop the bombing 100 per cent of the trucks would arrive," he said.

"No one has told us what would happen if we stopped bombing. We feel we and our allies are entitled to an answer to that question."

Tommy Sands

By BOB THOMAS
AP Television-Movie Writer

HONOLULU (AP) — "I'm the guy those boots were made for walking on," cracks Tommy Sands, and the night club audience shares his rueful humor.

Most of the nightly visitors to the Outrigger Hotel ballroom understand the significance of the remark. Singer Sands is the ex-husband of Nancy Sinatra who achieved success of her own with the man-taunting "These Boots Are Made for Walking" ("and one of these days these boots are going to walk all over you.") During his new night club act, Sands refers to his marriage and to onetime associates Dean Martin and Sammy Davis but avoids mention of his former father-in-law, Frank Sinatra.

It's all done with a light touch, and the Waikiki audiences applaud Sands' patter and his professional way with a song. What they don't realize is the underlying drama of the singer's return to show business.

Sands himself talks little about the past, and particularly about Hollywood, where he found little happiness. He is more concerned about the future — and Hawaii.

"Ever since I first came here in 1957, I felt this was the place where I wanted to be," he remarked as he sat bare-chested in his dressing room after his first show of the evening. "Every time I returned here, I realized that the people were warm and genuine. And so in May of last year, I gave up everything to come here and live."

"Throughout my career, the thing that gave me the most satisfaction was writing. I wrote songs and I sold them, but I also wrote poetry and movie scripts which I didn't sell. I realized that if I was to get anywhere with my writing, I would need to educate myself—I never even graduated from high school. So I got myself a tutor and I earned my high school diploma. Then in September I will enroll at the University of Hawaii in an English course, and I intend to stick with it until I get my master's degree."

This is a curious turn in Sands' career, but then, his career has defied formula. New York-born, he started singing at 6, left high school to go on the road and six months later starred on television in a play, "The Singing Idol." A movie version followed, and Tommy Sands became one of the bright young singers of the post-Presley period.

His marriage to Nancy Sinatra helped his fame. But Sands was disturbed by whispers that his career had been aided by his famous father-in-law.

After the divorce, Sands seemed to drop out of sight. His transfer from the hurly burly of Hollywood to the relaxed atmosphere of Hawaii appears to have made him a happy man.

Farm Income Lags

One need only be acquainted with the exodus of the rural population from the nation's farms to be aware the farmer's lot, although envied for its storybook simplicity by many city dwellers, is not a happy one.

The transition which has been taking place on America's farms is not ended. But one thing has changed very little — the family farmer still finds he comes out on the short end of the stick, even during years of unprecedented prosperity.

Periodic indices issued by the Dept. of Agriculture show an almost steady trend of farm costs rising faster than farm income. During June, for example, prices for farm machinery were up 5 percent from last year, automobiles and their supplies were also up 5 percent, and building materials had climbed 6 percent.

Prices farmers received for their products had risen only 1.5 percent during the same period.

The United States is fortunate to be one of the few nations of the world to produce more foodstuffs than it consumes, but there are a number of people who are keeping one eye on the population expansion and the other on shrinking farm acreage and wondering how much longer the favorable balance can survive.

Certainly the diminishing return on farm investment indicated by the price-cost disparity is doing nothing to improve the situation.

It may come as a sharp surprise to those who thought of the "ghettos" of the cities as the horrible example of living conditions to learn that there are three times as many substandard homes in rural America as in the cities. This estimate was made by John A. Baker, assistant secretary of agriculture, in a recent speech.

Baker also said half the nation's poverty is in the countryside. America as a land of plenty has been best symbolized perhaps in its agricultural abundance. Nor has this abundance been selfishly protected.

The United States is the most generous food provider in the world, particularly to countries which otherwise would face major hunger disasters. But somewhere along the line the farmer must do more than break even for his toil.

The law of abundance, otherwise, will shrink the abundance available to all.

Speaking of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

The liver seems like such a vague organ. What exactly does it do?

There is nothing vague about this remarkable chemical plant that is involved in every important function of the body.

The liver is one of the largest glands in the body and lies in the upper right side of the abdomen, below the diaphragm. It has two main lobes and is protected from injury by the rib cage.

A few of the activities that go on in the liver include the storage of sugar and the release of it when the rest of the body needs it. Harmful toxic poisons that accidentally circulate through the blood stream are caught in the web of the filtering system of the liver, purified and detoxified to protect other organs of the body.

Fat and fat by-products are formed and stored in the liver. One of the important activities in the liver is the production of bile and bile salts which are then passed into the gall bladder and kept in reserve until they are needed for digestion. A tiny duct leads from the gall bladder into the small intestine. When a fatty meal is eaten a message is immediately sent to the liver and to the gall bladder that says "We need some bile for the digestion of the fat, please send immediate supply." This relay system acts a thousand times faster than an SOS message from ship to shore.

The liver plays an important role in the manufacture of the blood ingredients necessary for coagulation. It also produces red blood cells and helps to destroy those that have exhausted their function.

The liver is remarkable, but also can be handicapped by all the diseases, infections, inflammations and tumors that affect all other organs.

Cirrhosis of the liver, due to chronic alcoholism, plays havoc with this piece of machinery, without which human existence can rarely continue.

Is it possible for a child who is known to be mentally retarded to have a specific talent in music or mathematics?

There are limitless terms which are used for feeble-mindedness and mental retardation. Many of them are confusing, especially when they are used without expert knowledge. There are now many important and complicated physiological tests that give an expert an excellent indication of mental facility or deficiency. To say that a child has a low grade or a high grade mental retardation is to do him a great injustice. Associated with intelligence tests there must be many neurological examinations to establish the degree of brain damage and to learn if the child may be able to function moderately well at school and later, in un-complicated business activity.

Doctors are often surprised to find that children who appear to have severe mental retardation emerge able to function and to be productive with proper training.

Every once in a while, a child who is known to have some mental retardation displays a remarkable accomplishment in one or more fields, even though there is a deficiency in others. History has many savants or scholars with remarkable detailed knowledge in one special area. These are known as idiot savants because of the strange combination of brilliance in one field and inadequacy in another. The newer knowledge of psychological re-education now can take children with known retardation and help retrain them so that they become serviceable to their families and to themselves.

The Business World

By JACK LEFFLER (For John Cumiff)

NEW YORK (AP) — A group devoted to helping Negroes move upward into management and executive jobs has been formed by Negroes who won top jobs in the retail industry.

"Twenty years ago it was considered beneath the Negro in a responsible position to extend a helping hand to those less fortunate," Walter W. Branford said. "This is no longer true."

Branford is a Negro in a responsible position who not only decided to extend his own hand but to get others to extend theirs as well.

"It's what's happening today," the tall, 40-year-old founder and chairman of the National Negro Retail Advisory Group said with an easy smile.

A marine engineer who moved into business after deciding "engineering wasn't my stick," Branford is assistant public relations director for W.T. Grant Co., a junior department store chain with about 1,100 outlets across the nation.

Branford said he decided to form the advisory group after "it became obvious to me that there was a need for a line of communication between the black community and the retail industry, and the best way to do this was to utilize those people involved in both — Negroes in retailing."

He said "there were three people at our first meeting last November. Now there are about 75. They are all Negroes and they all are in responsible jobs in retailing."

The group has several major goals. These include "Getting the retail industry to open jobs for qualified Negroes and other minorities on the management and executive levels initially and then working down to the middle supervisory and basic sales jobs. Finding job openings and finding the people to fill them. Interesting young people in jobs in retailing. Counseling retailers on how to develop communications with the black community in which they have a vested interest. And, working with the hard-core unemployed programs to bring about an increase in the upgrading of hard-core people."

Branford said the group used word of mouth, lectures, and brochures to deliver its message.

He said the group wanted to "develop a positive image of the retail industry among Negroes. We ask them to take a look at this man because we want to see that he gets a chance to move."

"We make no attempt to intimidate. An enlightened management, if made aware of the situation, will do something about it. If nothing happens, then we try to bring our person to the attention of someone who will recognize his abilities."

"What it boils down to is this: The American blank man wants the same things the American white man wants."

Moscow Needs Czechs

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The idea that East Germany, Poland, Hungary, and Bulgaria, along with the Soviet Union, are particularly worried about Czechoslovakia reverting to "capitalism" is, in the light of what has been happening in the Communist world, a somewhat grisly joke. For there isn't a Communist nation outside of Red China and Albania that hasn't had to make adaptations to individualist and competitive principles simply in order to live. Far from being leaders of a counter-revolution, the Czechs and Slovaks have been the last to join a fairly obvious procession to what is known in Moscow as "Libermanism."

In Poland, the somewhat muffled revolution of 1956 which brought Wladyslaw Gomulka back to power took the State off the backs of the peasants, who had refused to produce under collectivism. To this day more than eighty per cent of the Polish land is owned by individual peasant families, who kill their livestock every time the State threatens to go back to "socialist" agriculture. When the government tried to force the peasants into State-controlled tractor-owning organizations, the main effect was to turn the farms back to reliance on hand cultivation. With production falling, the ban on manufacture of horse-drawn machines had to be revoked.

Since then the horse population of Poland has steadily increased. The State farms, which rely on tractors, are out-produced by free peasants with horses despite the fact that they pay no taxes. Gomulka keeps talking about returning to Marxist principles in the countryside, but he doesn't dare carry through with his threats. He knows that his people depend on the individual farms for the major part of their food supply. And in Soviet Russia itself it is the peasant's private plot that keeps fat on the bones of the city dweller.

The Czechs have complained about the high price they pay for Soviet oil, and when Soviet Premier Kosygin visited Czechoslovakia last spring he was greeted by marchers with signs reading "Long live the Soviet Union, but at its own expense." These Czechoslovak grumbles about Soviet price discrimination do not set Czechoslovakia apart from the other central European satellites that have had to buy and sell in Russia.

According to the meticulous price researches of Aleksander Kutt, all of the captive nations have been paying more for Soviet oil than western European countries pay. They all have the same complaints. The East-Central European regimes did manage to get some rectification of prices in their dealings with Moscow in the mid-Sixties, but the improvement still has some distance to go.

Says Professor Kutt, in his latest study of the subject published by the Assembly of Captive European Nations, "As compared with prices charged and paid by the Soviet Union to Western Europe, the captive countries still paid more for Soviet goods, and received less from the Soviet Union for their own goods, for a total of about $2,361,000,000 in 1965 and $2,325,000,000 in 1966. The price corrections effected in 1965-1966 only prevented the Soviet illegitimate profits from trade with East-Central European countries from growing close to the three billion dollar level in 1966."

Since they all have the same hopes for an improvement of their economic position by adaptation of free market pricing to "socialist" production, and since they all have the same resentments about mistreatment in their trade look to non-economic sources for the fears in Poland, East Germany, Hungary, and Bulgaria about Czech "liberalism." The truth is that the Soviets must keep some kind of grip on Czechoslovakia in order to maintain their military supremacy in Poland, East Germany, and Hungary.

"The master of Bohemia," so Bismarck once said, "is the master of Europe."

The Czech highlands and the Carpathian mountains constitute the high ground in eastern Europe, and if this high ground were in unfriendly hands the Soviets could hardly risk their armies on the Polish, the East German or the Hungarian plains. The roads to East Berlin and Vienna would be outflanked. It is as simple as that; hence Moscow's insistence that the Czechs and the Slovaks remain a true as Poles and Hungarians to the Warsaw Pact.

It is Moscow's military pressure on Poland's Gomulka and Hungary's Kadar that is at the back of the group gang-up against the growth of Czech "liberalism." Left to themselves, nobody in any of the captive countries would care in the least what the Czechs did or did not do about their own "path to socialism."

U.S. Fiscal Year Deficit
$25.4 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Top government officials reported today the budget deficit in the fiscal year that closed June 30 was $25.4 billion — $5.6 billion above the administration's estimate in January and $3.1 billion above the revised estimate of March 31.

Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler and Charles J. Zwick, director of the Bureau of the Budget, said in a statement that congressional delays in enacting the 10 per cent income tax surcharge were partly responsible.

Receipts fell $2.3 billion short of what had been estimated in January because the surcharge did not go into the books in time to bring in the revenue anticipated, they said.

Spending was $3.3 billion higher than estimated in January, they said. They noted however that spending for Vietnam was only $800 million above what President Johnson outlined when he spelled out the revisions on March 31.

The deficit ranks as the fourth highest in history, exceeded only by those in the war years 1943, 1944, and 1945, when deficits above $50 billion a year were incurred.

When the budget went to Congress in January the deficit was figured at about $19.9 billion but the estimate had been substantially increased by the end of March.

Fowler and Zwick reported receipts of $152.5 billion and outlays of $176.9 billion during fiscal year 1968.

Vietnam spending was estimated in the budget in January at $24.5 billion but President Johnson later revised this upward to about $27 billion.

Derby
Mrs. Georgia Sweet
896-2462

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Puckett of Orange City, Florida were visitors recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Puckett. While here they visited other relatives including his mother Mrs. Effie Puckett and his sister Mrs. Marie Pine of Tarleton. Their visit cheered his mother who has been very poorly.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Yoakum and daughter Angela have moved into their new home at the Lake on Ballah Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parker of Magnolia, Ohio visited Miss Grace Minshall from Friday until Sunday and attended the Homecoming here. Mrs. Parker is a former resident of Derby. On Friday evening Lieutenant Colonel Gene Parker who is Superintendent of the hospital at Lockbourne Air Base called on his parents and spent a little time at the Homecoming.

Saturday evening callers at the home of Miss Minshall were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Phlor and Mrs. Goldie Horton of Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McPherson have purchased the Willie Williams property and Tom Graham has bought the former John Tobin property.

Saturday visitors at the Lloyd Pucketts were Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Bussard, Mary and Paul and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warner and family.

Several from here are attending the Pickaway County Fair this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schaefer called on the Archie Sweets on Friday.

Birthdays include: Mrs. Carl Vance, July 26; Bruce Reese, July 27; Greg Picklesimer, July 29; Mark Musselman, July 31; Bill Neff, August 1; Rex Allen Looney, August 2; John S. Riddle, August 2; Dennis Tobin, August 3; Mrs. Bill Shea, August 3; Everett Grabbill, August 4; Cheryl Miller, August 4; Dianne Timmons, August 4; Austin Fuller, Aug. 4.

Anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Yoakum on July 27.

Reagan Loser,
Poll Indicates

BOSTON (AP) — If the presidential election were held now, and Hubert H. Humphrey faced Ronald Reagan, the vice president would easily defeat California's Republican governor, The Christian Science Monitor said today.

The newspaper said in a dispatch from its Washington office that a poll of its political writers indicated that Reagan would have "an immense challenge" if nominated.

School Studies Question of Black Power

By TONY MAY
Associated Press Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — At Wanamaker Junior High in North Philadelphia, they've thrown out the mathematics, history, English and social studies textbooks this summer to study the question of Black Power.

"We don't mean we're teaching them how to make Molotov cocktails," said Principal Charles Leftwich, a balding Negro doctoral candidate. "We're asking them to investigate Black Power and what it means and what it does as a method of getting certain skills across."

Really, Leftwich said, the pupils are getting all those textbook subjects in concentrated form and, maybe for the first time, enjoying it.

Under Leftwich's experimental program, 89 boys in the predominantly Negro school are getting a chance to examine the how, what, when, where and why of Black Power and teenage gangs while the rest of the 500 fifth to eighth graders are divided into teams studying housing, recreation, city services, jobs and communications.

The idea, explained Leftwich, is to "find topics interesting enough to the pupils so they will want to learn to read and compete."

Studies show that most inner-city pupils can't read as well and aren't motivated as well as their suburban counterparts and therefore, they don't do as well in school—especially in courses

Negro Receives Hero's Medal

CHICAGO (AP) — Sidney Bennett, 35, a Negro karate teacher, has received Chicago's Medal of Merit from Mayor Richard J. Daley for his rescue of a news photographer.

Bennett rescued Mel Larson, a photographer for the Chicago Sun-Times who was badly beaten by a gang of youths Thursday night during an outbreak of violence in a Negro neighborhood on the near North Side.

Bennett was presented with the medal and a $250 check in the City Hall ceremony.

that require reading skills such as English and history, Leftwich said.

This summer, the principal said, most of the boys are reading more, and at a higher level than they did during the regular school year.

"We're reading 'The Autobiography of Malcolm X,' and we've read 'Another Country' by James Baldwin and Negro history books," said one pupil in the Black Power team headed by teacher Al Sessions.

And, said Sessions and Leftwich, attendance is up—meaning motivation is up.

"We're maintaining 95 per cent attendance even in this summer heat while the regular school attendance averages about 82 per cent," said Leftwich.

The Wanamaker experiment—which has received encouragement from the school system administration—is financed by the school's share of funds usually used for the normal remedial summer school program.

At least 90 per cent of the program's pupils "failed or nearly failed" a subject during the school year, Leftwich said.

At the end of the program, a pupil will receive a grade in work.

Voter Registration
Reminder Issued

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Secretary of State Ted W. Brown reminded Ohioans today there are 50 days remaining for voter registration to qualify for balloting in the Nov. 5 presidential election.

Ohio has 41 counties with countywide registration. In 10 other counties a portion of the precincts are involved in registration.

THE ONLY NEGRO ever elected to Canada's Parliament, lawyer Lincoln MacAuley Alexander, 46, takes his oath in Ottawa from Allister Fraser, Parliament clerk. Alexander is a Conservative from Hamilton West.

Costa Rican Volcano Toll Reaches 65

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — The death toll in the eruption of Mt. Arenal rose to 65 today and authorities began evacuating the town of Tilaran, where great quantities of volcanic ash were falling.

Some 90 persons were missing as lava, ash, rocks and boiling water continued to pour from the volcano. Dormant for five centuries, it began erupting Monday.

More than 100 persons were injured and property damage was estimated in the millions of dollars. Large amounts of livestock were destroyed.

An estimated 4,000 refugees fled from the area 62 miles northwest of San Jose.

The U.S. Air Force dispatched two UH1F helicopters, each carrying three paramedics, from Panama to aid rescue operations.

Grant for Jackson Announced by Miller

WASHINGTON (AP) — Approval of $732,000 Economic Development Administration grant to expand the Jackson, Ohio, water system was announced Tuesday by Rep. Clarence E. Miller, R-Ohio.

The grant, which the city will match to meet the $1,464,000 cost of the project, will permit enlargement of the treatment plant, construction of additional storage facilities and installation of distribution lines.

Canned or Flaky Yams A 'Louisiana Purchase'

ALICE DENHOFF

What kind of potatoes do you use during the summer months? Are you aware of the wonderful dishes you can make with Louisiana yam flakes and canned yams? A friend who has been experimenting with the canned yams and yam flakes gave us some wonderful recipes for you.

LOUISIANA YAM NUT CASSEROLE

2 pkg. (5 oz. each) instant mashed yams
2 tsp. butter or margarine
1 tsp. salt
3/4 tsp. ground ginger
1-3 c. chopped pecans
1 lb. boiled ham, cubed
2 tsp. each chopped pecans and honey

Prepare instant yams according to pkg. directions.

adding butter, salt, and ginger. Mix with 1-3 cup pecans. Turn into 1 1/2-quart casserole. Top with ham and sprinkle with remaining nuts and honey. Bake for 20 min. at 350 degrees F.

Serves 6 with a very tasty creole type casserole.

DIXIE YAM FRANKFURTER SKILLET

2 medium green peppers, thinly sliced
8 frankfurters, cut in 1" diagonal slices
1 garlic clove, halved
2 tsp. butter or margarine
1/4 c. firmly packed brown sugar
2 tsp. cornstarch
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. instant minced onion
2 1/2 c. orange-grapefruit juice
2 tsp. vinegar
1 tsp. soy sauce
2 cans (1 lb. each) yams, drained

Cook first 3 ingredients in butter in skillet until peppers are tender; remove garlic. Mix together next 4 ingredients; gradually stir in citrus juice. Add to franks along with vinegar and soy sauce. Cook and stir until sauce thickens; add yams and heat.

Serves 4.

CITRUS WHIPPED LOUISIANA YAMS

3 cans (1 lb. each) yams, drained and mashed
2-3 c. orange and grapefruit juice
1/2 c. sugar
2 to 3 tsp. butter or margarine
1-3 tsp. mace or nutmeg
1/4 tsp. salt

Blend together all ingredients in a saucepan. Heat to serving temperature, stirring over low heat.

Serves 8.

Mrs. J. Medert Honored with Baby Shower

Mrs. Jerry Medert was honored recently at a luncheon and baby shower in the home of Mrs. William McKinney, 290 Sunset Drive.

After presentation of gifts to Mrs. Medert, luncheon was served at tables decorated in a pink and white decor. Miniature pink booties were used as favors.

The guest list included Mrs. David Green, Mrs. Ronald O'Connor, Mrs. Thomas Stump, Mrs. Larry Eicher, Mrs. Joseph Weldon, Mrs. Dan Kinsey, Mrs. Jerry Voss and Mrs. Tom Wagner.

MISS LINDA WEAVER

The South Perry United Methodist Church will be setting for the open church wedding of Miss Linda Maxine Weaver and Edward Franklin Goss, 8:30 p.m. August 7.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Weaver, Route 1, Laurelville and Mr. Goss is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Goss, Route 2, Logan.

Miss Weaver is a graduate of Laurelville High School and is employed as a secretary at Charles Davis Insurance Agency in Logan.

Mr. Goss, a graduate of Logan High School is an aviation electrician's mate 2-C with the United States Navy.

Rich in taste and lean on calories, these flavorful melon cousins take you through the day from breakfast to dinner. Delight the family with melon as is, and melon served in the ways suggested today.

HONEYDEW FRUIT CUP

1 honeydew melon
2 c. halved, pitted sweet cherries
1 c. seedless grapes
1 large banana, sliced
1 tbsp. fresh lemon juice
2 c. chilled gingerale

Cut melon in crosswise halves; scoop out seeds. Scoop out pulp with a melon ball utensil; place in large bowl. Add next 4 ingredients; mix gently. Cover and refrigerate. Just before serving, pour over gingerale.

SUMMER CANTALOUPE DESSERT

1 pkg. (3% oz.) vanilla pudding mix
1 1/2 c. milk
1 c. heavy cream

2 large cantaloupes, chilled
Combine pudding mix and milk in medium saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Set pan in cold water to cool pudding; stir frequently. Chill.

Whip cream into pudding. Cut cantaloupes in crosswise halves; scoop out seeds. Fill cantaloupes with pudding. Chill until serving time.

Serves 4. WATERMELON ICE

1 watermelon (about 7 lbs.)
2-3 c. lemon juice (approx.)
1 c. sugar (approximately)
1/4 tsp. salt
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1/2 c. cold water

Remove rind and seeds from watermelon. Blend in electric blender or chop and rub through a sieve. There should be 6 cups puree. Stir in lemon juice, sugar and salt. Taste; add more sugar and lemon juice, if necessary. Soften gelatin in cold water; dissolve over boiling water. Stir gelatin into watermelon mixture. Pour into 3 refrigerator freezing trays. Freeze until frozen 1/2" around edges. Scrape into bowl and beat with electric mixer until smooth. Pour into refrigerator trays and freeze until firm.

Makes 2 quarts of refreshing, delicious ice.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Better To Wait Than Be Sorry

DEAR ABBY: I am 22 and Chuck is 23. We've been married going on five years and we have three children and another on the way. We were so much in love we could hardly wait to get married, but a lot of things have changed all that. We have never had a place of our own since we've been married. We have lived with my folks or Charlie's, mainly because Charlie can't seem to hold a job, so I have to work, and we need someone to look after the kids.

On top of that, Charlie still runs with the guys he ran with before we were married, and he just doesn't seem to want to settle down to married life. We have separated twice on that account and I can see it coming again. If it weren't for the kids, I'd leave him sure. I just might anyway. Have you advice for a girl who messed up her life as badly as I?

DEAR OLD: There is not much advice for a young woman in your position but your experience could serve as a warning signal for lots of 17 and 18-year-olds who are "so much in love" they can hardly wait to get married. You are still young enough, however, to make a better life for yourself, so if leaving Charlie is in the cards, don't wait another five years.

DEAR ABBY: What would you do with a husband like mine? Last night I served fresh raspberry pie, which has always been one of my specialties. And all of a sudden my husband, whom I shall call "Dr. Jekyll" turned into a regular Mr. Hyde. He stormed around like a wild man, saying he never cared for raspberry pie as it took him two days to get the seeds out of his teeth. Then he said he never could understand why I've been shoving it down his throat for 28 years!

Abby, I always thought my husband liked raspberry pie. I felt so hurt I cried myself to sleep. Was I wrong, or was he?

RASPBERRY FIGHT
DEAR FIGHT: If a man doesn't care for something his wife serves him, he shouldn't wait for 28 years to tell her about it. Tell Mr. Hyde you're no mind reader, and serve him baby food.

DEAR ABBY: Two years ago my husband wasn't feeling well so he went to a doctor. The doctor checked him over and told him he needed an operation. My husband never went back to that doctor, and he never had the operation. Today he says he never felt better in his life. How can you account for this?

HIS WIFE
DEAR WIFE: Either your husband didn't need the operation in the first place, or he still needs it. If you love him, get him to a doctor for another checkup. If he's lost confidence in the first one, let him try another.
CONFIDENTIAL TO "JUST FOR THE RECORD" IN BOSTON: Yes, I write all my own answers. A ghost writer hasn't a ghost of a chance with me.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Pickaway Grange

Members of Star Grange enjoyed their annual picnic at the Monroe School building. Following the picnic supper a business meeting was held with Worthy Master, Harold Furniss presiding. He heard the various reports.

He announced that Star Grange will take care of the gates at the Pickaway County Fair on Tuesday. The group voted to contribute to the Volunteer Service Council of the Columbus State Hospital and also voted for Mrs. Dorsey Bumgarner as delegate to the State Grange Convention and Austin Green as alternate.

The Home Economics Chairman, Mrs. Francis Furniss announced that Star Grange will help serve dinner at the 4-H and Grange building on Thursday and asked members to help. Plans were also completed for the Grange Booth at the Fair. It was announced that Pomona Grange will be held August 9 with Scioto Valley Grange as hosts. There will be no Grange meetings held during the month of August, and the next regular meeting will be held Sept. 10 and will feature election of officers.

The program, "The Immortal Hymns" under the direction of the lecturer, Mrs. Ernestine Dudson opened with the thought for the day by the chaplain, Mrs. Francis Furniss. The group sang, "Whispering Hope" accompanied at the piano by Patricia Schleich. Florence Long read "The Legend of the Violet". Mrs. Dudson read the story about the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers" and the group then sang the song. Miss Laura Long read the story about the hymn, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" followed by group singing and Mrs. Herman Porter read about, "Blest Be The Tie" followed by the group singing it.

looked down from bigger than life photoposters as a young GI in fatigues put a Peter, Paul and Mary record on the turntable.

A few feet away from the stereo's blaring speaker two Ft. Hood GIs in civilian clothes played a war game—chess.

Overseeing the scene was Josh Gould, who runs the Oleo Strut, a coffee house near the end of Avenue D, a garish, Army town type of street, lined with pawn shops, pinball joints, military uniform shops and small loan companies.

The Oleo Strut—the name belongs to a shock absorber on a helicopter's landing gear—is a project of the Summer of Support, an effort to put the "New Left" peace movement in personal touch with enlisted men in seven major Army posts. The coffee house opened a little more than a month ago.

Ft. Hood is one of the Army's largest posts, both in land areas and in number of troops—35,000 men in uniform.

It is about three miles west of Killeen. Many of its men are either bound for or just returning from Vietnam.

Two volunteers work with Gould in the Oleo Strut and say they pay their living expenses out of what the coffee house takes in.

One identified herself as Jay

Lockard, 21, a Radcliffe College coed from New Jersey. She is tall, brown eyed with short black hair.

The other is a frail, blond youth, about 19, whose forelock keeps falling over his face. He is from New York. He doesn't want his name used.

Both came down just for the summer but now are thinking about staying on.

"There has been a problem of not many people in the peace movement understanding GIs. A lot even regard him as an enemy. But most of the guys in the Army see themselves as victims, not as enemies of peace," Jay said.

Gould, 23, says the purpose of the coffee house is to give soldiers a place where they can relax in the "with it" atmosphere many of them were used to before they came in the service.

No liquor is sold, and drugs are forbidden.

An ex-soldier three years in Special Services, from San Antonio, Gould claims no effort is made to convert soldiers to opposing the Vietnam war. During one weekday evening, none of the people who run the Oleo Strut was overheard starting a conversation about the war.

The walls of the Oleo Strut are light yellow. It has about 20 tables with orange plastic cloths over them, and an odd assortment of chairs. Numerous posters—psychedelic, art nouveau, giant blow-ups of celebrity photos—cover the walls. From a bar up front coffee, cider, soft drinks, cheese cake, ice cream, pie and donuts are sold. A rack full of records sits next to the stereo turntable for customers to play. The discs lean heavily toward the new rock groups, folk singers and protest songs.

Auto Industry Profits Boom

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. Monday became the third of the big three automakers to announce major increases in earnings for the first half of the year with a 46 per cent increase.

Chrysler Corp. previously reported record first-half earnings and General Motors Corp. reported profits $48 million ahead of last year's first half.

Ford reported profits of $90.5 million, or $3.57 per share of common stock for the period. Sales totaled $7.6 billion.

Pickaway Grange

STAR GRANGE

Members of Star Grange enjoyed their annual picnic at the Monroe School building. Following the picnic supper a business meeting was held with Worthy Master, Harold Furniss presiding. He heard the various reports.

He announced that Star Grange will take care of the gates at the Pickaway County Fair on Tuesday. The group voted to contribute to the Volunteer Service Council of the Columbus State Hospital and also voted for Mrs. Dorsey Bumgarner as delegate to the State Grange Convention and Austin Green as alternate.

The Home Economics Chairman, Mrs. Francis Furniss announced that Star Grange will help serve dinner at the 4-H and Grange building on Thursday and asked members to help. Plans were also completed for the Grange Booth at the Fair. It was announced that Pomona Grange will be held August 9 with Scioto Valley Grange as hosts. There will be no Grange meetings held during the month of August, and the next regular meeting will be held Sept. 10 and will feature election of officers.

The program, "The Immortal Hymns" under the direction of the lecturer, Mrs. Ernestine Dudson opened with the thought for the day by the chaplain, Mrs. Francis Furniss. The group sang, "Whispering Hope" accompanied at the piano by Patricia Schleich. Florence Long read "The Legend of the Violet". Mrs. Dudson read the story about the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers" and the group then sang the song. Miss Laura Long read the story about the hymn, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" followed by group singing and Mrs. Herman Porter read about, "Blest Be The Tie" followed by the group singing it.

Fire Hits Plant Near Batavia

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP)—Fire early today caused an estimated $100,000 damage to the Crest Cabinet Co. in nearby Glen Este.

The plant, which manufactures kitchen cabinet and other wood products, is on the Cincinnati-Batavia Pike.

OHIO CASH GRAIN

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Dept. of Agr. cash grain prices, No 2 red wheat mostly 1 to 2 lower, 1.08-1.12, mostly 1.08-1.10; No 2 yellow corn mostly 1-2 lower, 88-95, mostly 89-93; No 2 oats unchanged to 1 lower, 52-60, mostly 52-55; No 1 soybeans unchanged to 1 higher, 2.48-2.55, mostly 2.52-2.54.

looked down from bigger than life photoposters as a young GI in fatigues put a Peter, Paul and Mary record on the turntable.

A few feet away from the stereo's blaring speaker two Ft. Hood GIs in civilian clothes played a war game—chess.

Overseeing the scene was Josh Gould, who runs the Oleo Strut, a coffee house near the end of Avenue D, a garish, Army town type of street, lined with pawn shops, pinball joints, military uniform shops and small loan companies.

The Oleo Strut—the name belongs to a shock absorber on a helicopter's landing gear—is a project of the Summer of Support, an effort to put the "New Left" peace movement in personal touch with enlisted men in seven major Army posts.

The coffee house opened a little more than a month ago.

Ft. Hood is one of the Army's largest posts, both in land areas and in number of troops—35,000 men in uniform.

It is about three miles west of Killeen. Many of its men are either bound for or just returning from Vietnam.

Two volunteers work with Gould in the Oleo Strut and say they pay their living expenses out of what the coffee house takes in.

One identified herself as Jay

Lockard, 21, a Radcliffe College coed from New Jersey. She is tall, brown eyed with short black hair.

The other is a frail, blond youth, about 19, whose forelock keeps falling over his face. He is from New York. He doesn't want his name used.

Both came down just for the summer but now are thinking about staying on.

"There has been a problem of not many people in the peace movement understanding GIs. A lot even regard him as an enemy. But most of the guys in the Army see themselves as victims, not as enemies of peace," Jay said.

Gould, 23, says the purpose of the coffee house is to give soldiers a place where they can relax in the "with it" atmosphere many of them were used to before they came in the service.

No liquor is sold, and drugs are forbidden.

An ex-soldier three years in Special Services, from San Antonio, Gould claims no effort is made to convert soldiers to opposing the Vietnam war. During one weekday evening, none of the people who run the Oleo Strut was overheard starting a conversation about the war.

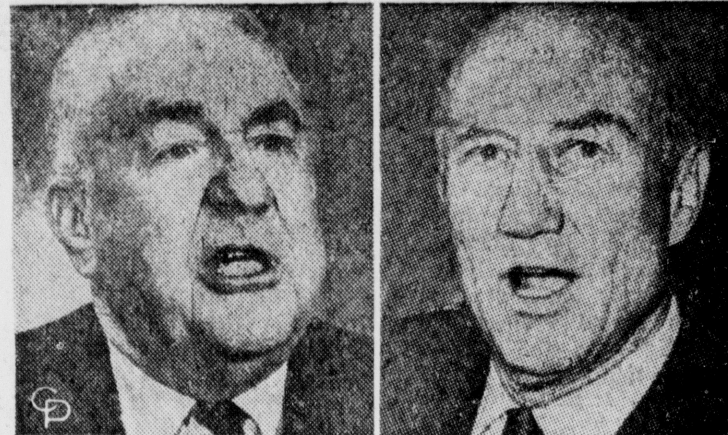

The walls of the Oleo Strut are light yellow. It has about 20 tables with orange plastic cloths over them, and an odd assortment of chairs. Numerous posters—psychedelic, art nouveau, giant blow-ups of celebrity photos—cover the walls. From a bar up front coffee, cider, soft drinks, cheese cake, ice cream, pie and donuts are sold. A rack full of records sits next to the stereo turntable for customers to play. The discs lean heavily toward the new rock groups, folk singers and protest songs.

Auto Industry Profits Boom

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. Monday became the third of the big three automakers to announce major increases in earnings for the first half of the year with a 46 per cent increase.

Chrysler Corp. previously reported record first-half earnings and General Motors Corp. reported profits $48 million ahead of last year's first half.

Ford reported profits of $390.5 million, or $3.57 per share of common stock for the period. Sales totaled $7.6 billion.

SPEAKING OUT in Washington, these two senators, Sam J. Ervin, D-N.C., and (right) Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., question whether there is a vacancy on the U.S. Supreme Court since Chief Justice Earl Warren said he would stay on until a successor is confirmed.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Better To Wait Than Be Sorry

DEAR ABBY: I am 22 and Chuck is 23. We've been married going on five years and we have three children and another on the way. We were so much in love we could hardly wait to get married, but a lot of things have changed all that. We have never had a place of our own since we've been married. We have lived with my folks or Charlie's, mainly because Charlie can't seem to hold a job, so I have to work, and we need someone to look after the kids.

On top of that, Charlie still runs with the guys he ran with before we were married, and he just doesn't seem to want to settle down to married life. We have separated twice on that account and I can see it coming again. If it weren't for the kids, I'd leave him sure. I just might anyway. Have you advice for a girl who messed up her life as badly as I?

DEAR OLD: There is not much advice for a young woman in your position but your experience could serve as a warning signal for lots of 17 and 18-year-olds who are "so much in love" they can hardly wait to get married. You are still young enough, however, to make a better life for yourself, so if leaving Charlie is in the cards, don't wait another five years.

DEAR ABBY: What would you do with a husband like mine? Last night I served fresh raspberry pie, which has always been one of my specialties. And all of a sudden my husband, whom I shall call "Dr. Jekyll" turned into a regular Mr. Hyde. He stormed around like a wild man, saying he never cared for raspberry pie as it took him two days to get the seeds out of his teeth. Then he said he never could understand why I've been shoving it down his throat for 28 years!

Abby, I always thought my husband liked raspberry pie. I felt so hurt I cried myself to sleep. Was I wrong, or was he?

RASPBERRY FIGHT

DEAR FIGHT: If a man doesn't care for something his wife serves him, he shouldn't wait for 28 years to tell her about it. Tell Mr. Hyde you're no mind reader, and serve him baby food.

DEAR ABBY: Two years ago my husband wasn't feeling well so he went to a doctor. The doctor checked him over and told him he needed an operation. My husband never went back to that doctor, and he never had the operation. Today he says he never felt better in his life. How can you account for this?

HIS WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Either your husband didn't need the operation in the first place, or he still needs it. If you love him, get him to a doctor for another checkup. If he's lost confidence in the first one, let him try another.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "JUST FOR THE RECORD" IN BOSTON: Yes, I write all my own answers. A ghost writer hasn't a ghost of a chance with me.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Torture Case Figure Dies In Napoleon

NAPOLEON, Ohio (AP)—Dr. Thomas C. Hadley, 32, who was charged along with two other men last Feb. 26 in the alleged torture of a Grand Rapids, Wood County boy, died Monday afternoon after collapsing at his home.

The physician was pronounced dead upon arrival at Heller Memorial Hospital here.

His case was still pending in the courts.

Authorities had charged that Hadley and the other men had tortured the boy in the doctor's office in Holgate, and later in a barn near Defiance. The barn was burned, and the boy later released near his home.

Cause of Hadley's death has not been determined, and authorities are still investigating. The torture case allegedly stemmed from a burglary at the physician's Holgate home some weeks previously.

Thomas Hardy Jr., of Napoleon, one of the two other men involved in the case, escaped from the Henry County Jail last May and was recaptured later. He waived a jury trial, and eventually was sentenced to Ohio Penitentiary on an escape charge.

The case of the third man, Steve Lockner, of Defiance, is still pending.

Saxbe Talks On Pollution

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe, Republican U. S. Senator candidate, issued a position paper Tuesday on pollution control and proposed tax incentives to industry to help it bear the cost of control devices.

Saxbe called it the first of a series of position papers for his campaign and it outlined an immediate approach supported by research and development programs.

Saxbe said during a tour of the Ohio shoreline of Lake Erie that his proposals are coordinated with steps already taken by the state to combat pollution.

Among other proposals he recommends a study to devise and develop cheaper methods of controlling both air and water pollution; regional cooperation between states and cities, and strict state and local enforcement of anti-pollution regulations.

$100,000 is the figure on the check held by Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Gossette in Orange, N.J., their prize in the New York lottery.

Child Neglect Brings Couple Jail Sentence

CINCINNATI (AP) — Judge Joseph A. Laebbers sentenced a Cincinnati man and woman to six months in the workhouse and fined them $200 each Monday in municipal court on a child neglect charge.

Dorothy Rose, 26, and Frank Boyard, 22, were arrested after Miss Rose's six children were found alone in an apartment police said was filthy.

Police said that a 3-year-old girl had on no clothing at all and the rest of the children, all filthy and hungry, had little clothing.

They reported that a 10-week-old boy was badly bitten by roaches and mosquitoes.

The children were taken to Allen House here.

Noncoms Training For Air Force One

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Air Force One, the presidential jet, is getting some new help.

Nineteen Air Force noncommissioned officers begin training today at Los Angeles International Airport to become stewards on the presidential jet and other executive planes.

The men will train at the Continental Airlines school under an Air Force contract.

Results Listed for Vegetable Fruits, Grain and Gourd Shows

Fruit, grain, vegetable and gourd shows at the Pickaway County Fair, housed in the newly decorated building beside the horseshoe pitching courts, have been judged by Corwin Carr of Washington C.H.

Gene Houser, chairman of the committee for the shows, is proud of the building. Inside are rows of the best farm and garden produce of county growers the past year.

The Bolenders, Drakes, Coons and many other well-known growers as well as new comers have exhibits which were judged winners. Here is the complete list of winners in the shows.

2nd Bank Robber Stands No Chance

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Employees at the Vermont Avenue branch of Security Pacific National Bank were just getting over the excitement of their first bank robbery when another bandit struck—less than two hours later.

The first thief made off with $411 Tuesday but the second was captured by FBI agents investigating the first robbery.

9 Injured In Collision Near Cincy

CINCINNATI (AP)—A grinding traffic crash on Wooster Pike near here Tuesday — involving an ambulance, a tractor trailer truck and two autos — injured nine persons and backed traffic in both directions for miles.

Scene of the accident was just outside Mariemont, near a road sign which reads: "This is the most dangerous stretch of highway in Ohio." The sign was erected several years ago when Wooster Pike accidents and fatalities mounted at an alarming rate.

Only one of the injured was reported in critical condition. She was Vickie Jackson, 9, of near Newtown, taken to a Mariemont hospital.

Hamilton County sheriff's deputies said an eastbound car apparently crossed the center line and struck an auto, then veered into the eastbound lane and hit the rear of the truck — then careened back into the opposite lane, striking the ambulance.

Marks on the shells of otter-gathered abalones indicate that otters may use a stone to dislodge large abalones from beds of rock.

Ward in Hospital

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Personnel Director Wayne Ward, 59, was reported in satisfactory condition today in University Hospital, where he was admitted Monday for what his physician termed "heart fatigue." Ward will undergo tests while in the hospital, his office said.

U.S. GIs Build Papa Line Against Korean Invasion

By BOB POOS

WITH U.S. 7TH DIVISION, Korea (AP) — Soldiers of the U.S. 7th Division are carrying out with picks, shovels, airhammers and bulldozers a new concept of defense against a repeat of the 1950 Communist invasion of South Korea.

Until fairly recently, most faith in defense against another invasion was placed on a series of fortifications strung along the 151-mile-wide Korea demilitarized zone, massive U.S. aerial retaliation and the hoped-for ability of the Korean army and the U.S. 2nd and 7th divisions to contain the Communists along the Imjin River near the DMZ.

No one has ever officially admitted it, but if North Koreans cracked the defensive line and came streaming down the 20-mile-wide corridor that is the classic invasion route to the South, the allies would probably have to fall back and dig in on the south bank of the Han River.

As one military observer understated it: "This is not particularly appealing to the Koreans as Seoul is on the north bank."

A good portion of the capital's four million citizens remember 1950 when the Communists overran the "Special City" as they call it and came close to conquering all South Korea.

The new concept was apparently inspired by the January crisis when a team of North Korean agents tried to kill President Chung Hee Park. Two days later North Korean gunboats captured the U.S. intelligence ship Pueblo.

This idea calls for a second massive line of fortifications across the Seoul corridor about 20 miles north of the capital. It is called the Papa Line.

Work started on it in earnest in June and a considerable amount of the bunkers have been finished.

Eventually, the whole system will be linked by a series of trenches, both for defense and for communications.

Just how near completion it is remains classified information but officers say they are pleased with progress.

The line, no matter how strong it will be—and it will be a massive series of in-depth forts—is not the sole hope for the defense of South Korea.

But the Papa Line, if nothing else, will give the United Nations force a solid anchor north of Seoul that might present an insurmountable obstacle to an invader already worn down from battering through South Korea's first defenses.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Situation comedy, out of style and out of favor with network television program makers for the past few seasons, is making a comeback next season.

There are seven new series of the genre on the schedules of the three networks. And a lucky swing of the programming cycle returns them at a time when fierce physical action and gunplay is, if not taboo, at least radically modified.

Television series are usually under construction for one or two years before the public gets its first look at a show, so most of these were on the drawing boards long before the public and the networks began worrying about shoot 'em ups and their suspected effects on tender or disturbed minds.

On the September docket are CBS' "Doris Day Show," the popular film star's first excursion into television. She plays a former band singer, a widow with two children, adjusting to rural life. There is also NBC's "Julia," with Diahann Carroll playing a widowed registered nurse with child. Other nonviolent comedies include CBS' "Blondie," based on a comic strip; ABC's "Ugliest Girl in Town"; NBC's Fantasy, "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir"; CBS' "The Good Guys," and ABC's hour-long "Here come the Brides," a period piece set in the Northwest lumberjack country.

Second most popular category for new shows is action, mostly police or private eye action. The five shows include NBC's "The Outsider," in the mood of those old Raymond Chandler private eye books; ABC's "Mod Squad" and CBS' "Hawaii Five," both working the police beat; NBC's "Adam 12," which will handle a pair of squad car cops in the manner of "Dragnet" and NBC's major effort, the 90-minute "Name of the Game."

Two new variety shows will be added to the growing list—NBC's "Beautiful Phyllis Diller Show" and the off-beat "That's Life" on ABC which will attempt a weekly book musical built around a cast of regular performers playing continuing characters.

There will also be two new Westerns, CBS' "Lancer," and ABC's "Outcasts."

ABC will replace a science fiction series, "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea" with another, "The Land of Giants," the only new entry in that category. And it will also add one semi-games program, "The Don Rickles Show," in which the emphasis is on comedy rather than oneupmanship. ABC also has the sole anthology series of the season, "Journey to the Unknown," with different plot and performers weekly.

CBS' inspection of Negro participation in athletics and music were the subjects of the Tuesday night documentary in its "Of Black America" series.

The program opened with a survey of various sports and a statistical report by narrator Harry Reasoner on the amount of black participation. Negro athletes commented. The subject has been widely and thoroughly explored in print recently and the television report added little.

The program really hit its stride during the second portion with a moving commentary by Ray Charles on the nation's debt to the black man for his music.

Whammy Attempt Brings Charges

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — A man was sentenced to 10 days in city jail for giving municipal Judge Romualdo E. Chavez a whammy.

Chavez said he was conducting court when he noticed James Khron of Los Angeles giving him what Chavez called the evil eye. Chavez said Khron clasped his hands together and pointed both index fingers at him.

The judge gave Khron five days for contempt of court. When Khron repeated the gesture he was sentenced to another five days.

Backs Dismissal Of OSU Professor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State University trustees' dismissal of assistant professor David E. Green for allegedly burning his draft card in a classroom has been commended by Roger A. Munson, state commander of the American Legion.

Munson, in a letter to OSU President Novice Fawcett, said that while the Legion supports the concept of academic freedom, "we believe that Dr. Green's actions demonstrate an inability to differentiate between 'freedom and license' thus rendering him unfit as a teacher."

The hour program, while well done, would have been more effective if compressed sharply into 30 minutes. Both sections of the show seemed to find it necessary to underline the same points two or three times.

Demo Convention Takes Air of Armed Camp

CHICAGO (AP) — Fifteen thousand soldiers, police and federal agents will turn the site of the Democratic National Convention into an armed camp next month in a giant security operation.

The security arrangements could turn the convention—normally a hornblowing spectacular—into an austere exercise in martial order.

Racial tensions in the city and the crowds of demonstrators and hippies who plan to come to Chicago will compound the job of keeping order and protecting President Johnson and the candidates.

Deployed round-the-clock at Chicago International Amphitheatre, and at hotels and motels housing delegates, will be some 8,000 uniformed and undercover policemen, 5,500 riot-trained National Guardsmen and at least 1,000 federal agents.

More men will be available on short notice from the Cook County sheriff's office, state police, the Coast Guard and the FBI. The remainder of Chicago's 12,000 man police department, including a mobile 600 man task force, will be on standby.

All security procedures are being coordinated by the Secret Service, charged with protecting the president, vice president and political candidates.

The Secret Service has 580 agents across the country and most will be in Chicago during convention week, Aug. 25-30.

Though plans are under tight wraps, it presumably was the Secret Service which ordered two Air Force reconnaissance jets to make low passes over Chicago last week to photograph the Amphitheatre and surrounding terrain.

Security measures are being taken on the Amphitheatre grounds, which sprawl across the eastern edge of the Union Stockyards on the racially tense South Side. Fences are going up and heliports being constructed, reportedly for airlifting candidates to and from the hall.

The Amphitheatre, with 585,000 square feet of floor space under a single roof, will be sealed off within roughly an eight-square-block buffer zone.

To penetrate the perimeter, both pedestrians and vehicles will be required to display Democratic National Committee credentials. Inside, checkpoints will be established where guards reportedly will tear off perforated sections of the passes, good for only one day.

Traffic court will be closed Aug. 17-30, freeing 23 magistrates to process large numbers of prisoners in the event of a disturbance.

Each magistrate could hear well over 200 civil disorder cases a day.

The whole operation, both in scope and magnitude, appears to have taken on the aspect of a military movement.

Social Activities To Abound At Republican Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — Social activities ranging from breakfasts to fancy parties will be in the political arsenals of the contenders for the Republican presidential nomination at the party's convention next week.

In their efforts to gain the nomination, the GOP campaigners have appointed social directors to provide hospitality to the 2,666 delegates and alternates at the Miami Beach convention.

If a delegate works at it he could spend the entire week receiving everything from his morning orange juice to his evening dinner and drinks, with entertainment thrown in, all without spending his own money.

Richard Nixon's social leader is Patricia Reilly Hitt, official hostess at the 1964 GOP convention in San Francisco. She now is co-chairman of the Nixon for President Committee.

The Nelson A. Rockefeller party and entertainment director is Bertha Adkins, an Oxford, Md., resident who was an undersecretary of Health, Education and Welfare in the Eisenhower administration.

Both ladies plan events to provide platforms for their candidates to serve political pitches

Boys 16, 17, Charged in Cop-Shooting

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two teen-agers were charged Tuesday with wounding a Cleveland policeman July 23 during racial disturbances on the city's East Side which left 10 dead and 15 wounded.

The boys, aged 17 and 16, are scheduled to appear in court Thursday.

They are charged with wounding police Lt. Elmer Joseph, 53, who suffered abdominal and leg wounds during a gunfight with snipers in which three policemen were killed.

Another youth accused of taking part in the sniper battle, Alfred Thomas, 19, is to appear in municipal court Aug. 7 charged with shooting with intent to kill. He is being held in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Police hired a power shovel Tuesday to dig through the ruins of a building in a search for the bodies of more snipers. None were found.

The building was burned while snipers inside exchanged shots with police.

NAACP Asks Investigation Of 'Brutality'

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, (NAACP) asked Tuesday for a federal investigation of alleged police brutality during last week's racial disturbances in the Glenview area.

William F. Pickard, NAACP executive secretary, and branch President Wendell Irwin said they have asked U. S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey S. Clark, the U. S. Civil Rights Commission and the federal communications commission to investigate.

"The numerous and unjustified and brutal attacks on black citizens will not be tolerated," Irwin said. "Our office has been swamped with people coming in to file complaints of open and brutal attacks on black citizens by policemen."

The FCC is being asked to investigate the alleged use of profanity and degrading remarks over police radio, Pickard said.

Youngsters Seek Cash in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 20-year-old University Heights girl Tuesday presented a $6,000 check to the Council for Economic Opportunities in Greater Cleveland.

Marilyn Goler said the check was on behalf of more than 1,000 Cleveland young people who had gone from door-to-door trying to raise $40,000 for three inner-city drop-in centers.

She said the collection was just the first part of a Cleveland Youth Now campaign. "We have almost $9,000 and it's still coming in," Miss Goler added.

One of the most remarkable museums in Italy displays only umbrellas, the National Geographic says. The Umbrella Museum in the village of Gignese recalls the days when virtually the entire town made and repaired umbrellas and parasols.

Former Teller Given Probation

CINCINNATI (AP) — U. S. District Judge David S. Porter Tuesday placed a former teller of the Southern Ohio Bank on three years' probation for embezzling $10,000 from the bank in January.

Porter also ordered a 90-day study of the man, Arthur L. Patterson, 20, on recommendation of federal authorities who have studied the case.

Patterson pleaded guilty to the charge last March. The money has not been recovered.

'Credit Cards' Enter Viet War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U. S. Command has introduced something like a credit card as its newest weapon against black marketing and dollar profiteering in South Vietnam, Pentagon officials report.

Currency control plates must now be used when a serviceman converts his military script to cash or when he spends it on certain high-priced post exchange goods.

Troops stationed in Vietnam are paid in scrip, or Military Payment Certificates (MPC), instead of dollars.

The plastic cards are used to stamp special forms which are fed through computers to give U. S. officials in Saigon a constant watch on the volume of converted scrip as well as on PX buying.

For example, if a man converts more than the authorized amount of scrip into dollars or money orders, the computer kicks out a card identifying him and showing all his recent transactions.

The plate also is used in recording all purchases of goods sought by black marketers: cameras, television sets, tape recorders, stereo systems, radios, airline tickets and other luxury items.

Scrip was introduced in Vietnam in 1965 as a means of keeping U. S. dollars off the market and easing the impact of American spending on the country's inflated economy.

But illicit money manipulation and illegal sales of American goods are a continuing problem.

The U. S. Command has been forced to progressively tighten controls over American currency in South Vietnam to curb black market activities.

One of the latest restrictions, Pentagon officials say, went into effect last May: A $200 limit on the amount of scrip a serviceman can convert into cash when he is about to return to the United States.

He can exceed this limit only in the case of personal emergencies and then only with special permission.

The Pentagon says currency controls are needed because the dollar in Vietnam remains "in great demand" and "highly sought after through both legal and illegal means."

"This is especially true of Communist nations lacking normal trade relations with the free world, particularly North Vietnam and Red China."

The $200 limit is designed to "reinforce the effectiveness" of the scrip system, which, in the final analysis, is supposed to help protect the American dollar, the Pentagon said.

Social Activities To Abound At Republican Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — Social activities ranging from breakfasts to fancy parties will be in the political arsenals of the contenders for the Republican presidential nomination at the party's convention next week.

In their efforts to gain the nomination, the GOP campaigners have appointed social directors to provide hospitality to the 2,666 delegates and alternates at the Miami Beach convention.

If a delegate works at it he could spend the entire week receiving everything from his morning orange juice to his evening dinner and drinks, with entertainment thrown in, all without spending his own money.

Richard Nixon's social leader is Patricia Reilly Hitt, official hostess at the 1964 GOP convention in San Francisco. She now is co-chairman of the Nixon for President Committee.

The Nelson A. Rockefeller party and entertainment director is Bertha Adkins, an Oxford, Md., resident who was an undersecretary of Health, Education and Welfare in the Eisenhower administration.

Both ladies plan events to provide platforms for their candidates to serve political pitches as well as canapes to the delegates. Parties will be held in beachfront hotels, clubs and boats.

Besides the events scheduled by the various contenders and their supporters, the convention goers will be treated to parties and dinners sponsored by the GOP as a whole.

Boys 16, 17, Charged in Cop-Shooting

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two teen-agers were charged Tuesday with wounding a Cleveland policeman July 23 during racial disturbances on the city's East Side which left 10 dead and 15 wounded.

The boys, aged 17 and 16, are scheduled to appear in court Thursday.

They are charged with wounding police Lt. Elmer Joseph, 53, who suffered abdominal and leg wounds during a gunfight with snipers in which three policemen were killed.

Another youth accused of taking part in the sniper battle, Alfred Thomas, 19, is to appear in municipal court Aug. 7 charged with shooting with intent to kill. He is being held in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Police hired a power shovel Tuesday to dig through the ruins of a building in a search for the bodies of more snipers. None were found.

The building was burned while snipers inside exchanged shots with police.

NAACP Asks Investigation Of 'Brutality'

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, (NAACP) asked Tuesday for a federal investigation of alleged police brutality during last week's racial disturbances in the Glenville area.

William F. Pickard, NAACP executive secretary, and branch President Wendell Irwin said they have asked U. S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey S. Clark, the U. S. Civil Rights Commission and the federal communications commission to investigate.

"The numerous and unjustified and brutal attacks on black citizens will not be tolerated," Irwin said. "Our office has been swamped with people coming in to file complaints of open and brutal attacks on black citizens by policemen."

The FCC is being asked to investigate the alleged use of profanity and degrading remarks over police radio, Pickard said.

Something To Think About . . . A Look at Fashion

By JEAN CRIST

High fashion has always eluded me. When I was young and the popular and fashionable clothes were for those with ample chest and hip measurements, I was shaped like Twiggy.

Everything had to be fixed with tucks to take up the slack and the finished product was rather distressing in appearance. Now that I have finally attained, after a surplus of hot fudge sundaes, the figure that was desirable in my youth, the styles are for those with young, boyish figures. According to the designers when you wear the new pencil-slim shift dresses you are not supposed to show any curves in the line of the dress or you defeat the purpose of the styling. But unless I get a dress two sizes too large the curves are determined to appear. I never seem to be at the right time with the right figure. My only consolation is that as I look around, I feel I have a lot of company.

Let's face it, the fashion designers are not designing clothes to fit the figure of a woman as nature intended her to be. We are told it is high fashion and the "in" thing for women to have a figure like a young boy's and to be bony and angular in form. If there are any curves present you should diet until they disappear. Your clothing is supposed to hang on your body like a gunny sack.

Now I realize there are some women who are satisfied with this styling but I feel there are many more who are not and who buy what is sold in the stores only because they can't find what they really want.

I think it's time the women of this country started a revolt. We should demand clothes that are made for women's figures. The clothes we wear should enhance the God-given bodies each of us possess and not hide them behind a tent of material or expose them to the point that they lose their "appeal of the unknown" that has for centuries been one of the charms of a truly feminine woman.

Let the little girls look like little girls and women look like women instead of this ridiculous era that we are in where the little girls, youth and loveliness is spoiled by making her a replica of her mother and where mother looks distorted and uncomfortable in childish dresses that only detract from her appearance as a woman. If the American woman has a sincere desire to see a realistic change in the fashion world she has it within her power to make it happen. All she has to do is make her desires known where it hurts, in the market-place, by refusing to buy what she does not like. In a very short time the styles would change because after all, the whole basic idea behind fashion is to sell as many clothes as possible. The designers argue that the American woman doesn't know what she wants to wear, she has to be told. There may have been a period when this was true but I don't think it applies today. The women, as a whole, are more intelligent and aware than ever before when it comes to what they wear. The designers also argue that the extreme fashions sell. This is true for two reasons. The first one is that there are always exhibitionists around who will wear anything to make someone look at them and secondly, that the majority of women feel they have no choice in the matter. They are wrong, they do have a choice but they have to recognize the fact and act on it.

In addition to boycotting what they dislike, it is time more women began to set their own style of dress. They should decide what manner of dress best compliments their personality and way of life and adopt it as their very own fashion. Trying to look like a carbon copy of Jackie Kennedy or some V.I.P.'s wife can often be disastrous to a woman totally different in body build and personality. No woman can ever be more beautiful than when she wears clothing suited only to her. Give the subject some thought and see if you don't find it preferable to be a first-class me rather than a second-class someone else. To sum up, we don't have to accept what the market offers and it is no longer necessary to copy the mode of dress of another woman to be well-dressed.

Jane Russell Is Divorced In California

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former film glamor girl Jane Russell has divorced her ex-football star husband, Bob Waterfield, ending a 25-year marriage. Miss Russell, 47, testified in divorce court Tuesday that her husband was cold and indifferent. He had filed a cross-complaint charging her with habitual intemperance. Miss Russell was given custody of her adopted children, Thomas, 18, and Tracy, 17. Waterfield won custody of their third adopted child, Robert, 12. Miss Russell received a $110,000 house in Newport Beach and Waterfield, 48, received the $55,000 family house in Sherman Oaks.

Miss Russell continues to receive $900 a week under her contract with Howard Hughes, who launched her movie career by starring her in "Outlaw." "Outlaw" premiered in 1943. That year Miss Russell married Waterfield, the star quarterback of UCLA's vaunted football team. Waterfield became quarterback for the professional Los Angeles Rams while his wife starred in scores of pictures during the 1940s and 1950s. During the last year of their marriage, Miss Russell testified, Waterfield was often out until 2 and 3 a.m. and rarely showed up for dinner.

Santa Wins Mail Fight

Luminous Paint Used on Bridges
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Highway Department has initiated a new program designed to cut down night accidents involving bridges and culverts. White reflectorized paint is being applied to all bridges and culverts that are four feet or less from the edge of the pavement on the state's major highways, or those carrying more than 3,000 vehicles a day.

Lake Erie Pool Is Opened Today
CLEVELAND (AP)—A swimming pool in Lake Erie will be officially opened today by Mayor Carl B. Stokes at White City Beach. The pool was built with a $325,000 federal grant. A section of the beach at East 140th Street has been partitioned and the water inside treated to allow swimming in the normally polluted Lake Erie waters.

Something To Think About . . . A Look at Fashion.

By JEAN CRIST

High fashion has always eluded me. When I was young and the popular and fashionable clothes were for those with ample chest and hip measurements, I was shaped like Twiggy.

Everything had to be fixed with tucks to take up the slack and the finished product was rather distressing in appearance. Now that I have finally attained, after a surplus of hot fudge sundaes, the figure that was desirable in my youth, the styles are for those with young, boyish figures. According to the designers when you wear the new pencil-slim shift dresses you are not supposed to show any curves in the line of the dress or you defeat the purpose of the styling. But unless I get a dress two sizes too large the curves are determined to appear. I never seem to be at the right time with the right figure. My only consolation is that as I look around, I feel I have a lot of company.

Let's face it, the fashion designers are not designing clothes to fit the figure of a woman as nature intended her to be. We are told it is high fashion and the "in" thing for women to have a figure like a young boy's and to be bony and angular in form. If there are any curves present you should diet until they disappear. Your clothing is supposed to hang on your body like a gunny sack.

Now I realize there are some women who are satisfied with this styling but I feel there are many more who are not and who buy what is sold in the stores only because they can't find what they really want.

I think it's time the women of this country started a revolt. We should demand clothes that are made for women's figures. The clothes we wear should enhance the God-given bodies each of us possess and not hide them behind a tent of material or expose them to the point that they lose their "appeal of the unknown" that has for centuries been one of the charms of a truly feminine woman.

Let the little girls look like little girls and women look like women instead of this ridiculous era that we are in where the little girls, youth and loveliness is spoiled by making her a replica of her mother and where mother looks distorted and uncomfortable in childish dresses that only detract from her appearance as a woman. If the American woman has a sincere desire to see a realistic change in the fashion world she has it within her power to make it happen. All she has to do is make her desires known where it hurts, in the market-place, by refusing to buy what she does not like. In a very short time the styles would change because after all, the whole basic idea behind fashion is to sell as many clothes as possible.

The designers argue that the American woman doesn't know what she wants to wear, she has to be told. There may have been a period when this was true but I don't think it applies today. The women, as a whole, are more intelligent and aware than ever before when it comes to what they wear. The designers also argue that the extreme fashions sell. This is true for two reasons. The first one is that there are always exhibitionists around who will wear anything to make someone look at them and secondly, that the majority of women feel they have no choice in the matter. They are wrong, they do have a choice but they have to recognize the fact and act on it.

In addition to boycotting what they dislike, it is time more women began to set their own style of dress. They should decide what manner of dress best complements their personality and way of life and adopt it as their very own fashion. Trying to look like a carbon copy of Jackie Kennedy or some V.I.P.'s wife can often be disastrous to a woman totally different in body build and personality. No woman can ever be more beautiful than when she wears clothing suited only to her. Give the subject some thought and see if you don't find it preferable to be a first-class me rather than a second-class someone else.

To sum up, we don't have to accept what the market offers and it is no longer necessary to copy the mode of dress of another woman to be well-dressed.

Jane Russell Is Divorced In California

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former film glamor girl Jane Russell has divorced her ex-football star husband, Bob Waterfield, ending a 25-year marriage.

Miss Russell, 47, testified in divorce court Tuesday that her husband was cold and indifferent. He had filed a cross-complaint charging her with habitual intemperance.

Miss Russell was given custody of her adopted children, Thomas, 18, and Tracy, 17. Waterfield won custody of their third adopted child, Robert, 12.

Miss Russell received a $110,000 house in Newport Beach and Waterfield, 48, received the $55,000 family house in Sherman Oaks.

Miss Russell continues to receive $900 a week under her contract with Howard Hughes, who launched her movie career by starring her in "Outlaw."

"Outlaw" premiered in 1943. That year Miss Russell married Waterfield, the star quarterback of UCLA's vaunted football team.

Waterfield became quarterback for the professional Los Angeles Rams while his wife starred in scores of pictures during the 1940s and 1950s.

During the last year of their marriage, Miss Russell testified, Waterfield was often out until 2 and 3 a.m. and rarely showed up for dinner.

Santa Wins Mail Fight

Eight Heats of Racing Thrill Pickaway Harness Fans

THERE THEY GO — Veteran starter Hank Butler of Waverly leads the first heat of the Pickaway County Fair races to the post Tuesday. There were eight heats of racing in the program.

LIKE FATHER — Tom Ebenhack follows the footsteps of his father, Emmitt Ebenhack, well known Wayne Twp. harness horseman. Tom finished second in one of the heats Tuesday with Hi Vo, his own pacer.

Trotter Tours Fastest Mile

Sukey Sue, owned by Doris Steinman and Dale Miller of Newark and driven by Dick Myers, showed her heels to the field in the final heat of Tuesday's racing program at the Pickaway County Fair, winning in 2:07.3, the fastest time of the day.

Myers, a young apprentice driver, took the trotter to the front in the first turn and never faltered in the second heat of the conditioned trot after reining her to a second place finish in the first trip. Miracle Mix won the first heat in 2:08.1.

A comparatively sparse crowd watched the young trotter prove presiding judge Robert Steele's statement that Circleville has one of the fastest half-mile ovals on the county fair circuit.

Before the races started, Steele had commented that the Pickaway County Fair track was deceptively fast and that winners would post very good times in the race.

THERE were three twin heat winners in the program.

Campus Martius, owned and driven by R.L. Pugh of Whipple, moved into the lead in the first heat of the afternoon at the final turn after trailing Damita Rose for over three-quarters of a mile and won. Damita Rose finished third in the heat, following Golden Jimmy under the wire.

In her second trip, Campus Martius was taken right to the front by Pugh and never trailed. Again Golden Jimmy was second while Miss Europe, owned by Bennett Junk of New Holland and driven by Jack Morgan, placed third.

The two-year-old pacer won in 2:11 in the first race and 2:12 her second time out.

Kid Bandit ran almost identical miles in the second and sixth heats of the afternoon, nosing under the wire in 2:11.2, the first time and 2:09 the second for a dual win.

Fred Peters, owner-driver from Barnesville, brought his entry to the head of the pack on the back stretch of the second lap both times, leading by the three-quarter pole and winning easily.

SECOND in both races was Luminous, owned and driven by R.G. Betts of Barnesville while Waving Tim, owned by L.P. Valley and J.N. Hines of Waverly, finished third.

Sue Painter, owned by Don King Construction and driven by Dr. F. Hess, a Jackson County veterinarian, won both heats of the third division of the pace for two year olds and non-winners of $400.

Hess grabbed the lead at the three quarter pole and won the first heat of the race by a length in 2:10. Mary's Pretty Boy, owned by Mary E. Stroud and driven by Hobart Stroud of Scio, finished second in the first trip while Goldie's Atom, owned by Ted and Guy Lahmon of Gambier with J. A. Young in the sulky finished third.

Time of the mile in the second heat of the race was 2:11.4. Hi Vo, with young Tom Ebenhack up, contested Sue Painter for the lead but finished second by half a length. Hi Vo had broken on the first lap of the first heat and finished sixth in that race.

Third in the second trip of the race was Heidi Way, owned and driven by Vinal Link of Sunbury.

Ebenhack's second was the best finish for a locally owned horse. Ty Borton, owned by Ed and Marjorie Callihan of Circleville finished seventh and eighth in the two heats of the second division of the first race.

ARTHUR Mace's Dooneys Do, with Paul Norris up, was fourth and fifth in the same race.

Norris also drove Pink Taffy, owned by Arthur Mace and Frank Rhoades of Circleville, finishing fifth and tenth in the two heats of the trot.

A lot of the credit for the fast track has to go to Harlow Arledge, a member of the speed committee. The tractor pulling

Blue Ribbon, Wards End With Wins

Blue Ribbon ended its season with a 10-4 record on a 16 - 5 win over Circleville Oil Tuesday in Little League Minors.

Wards dropped First National, 21-8, in another league tilt. Wards has a 7-7 season and First National and Circleville Oil are 2-12.

Brent Mancini struck out 12 and gave up three hits as Blue Ribbon routed Circleville Oil. Tom Strawser and Mancini poled homers and Herb Sturgell and Ernie O'Dell doubled for the winners.

Wards unleashed a 20-hit attack against First National. Chris Payne homered twice and Bruce Brudzinski homered. Randy Dean tripled twice and lone three sackers were recorded by Bruce Rodgers, Mike McDonald, Doug Winks and Brudzinski. Winks and Brudzinski doubled and Jeff Reichelderfer had a pair of two baggers.

BRUCE Rogers teamed up with Brudzinski to hurl the win, walking 12, fanning 10 and allowing two hits.

Heiskell Cards 33 at PCC

Team No. 7 strengthened its third place standing by taking top honors in Pickaway County Country Club Men's League Tuesday.

Composed of Tom McGuire, Bob Moon, Jasper Hedges, Wink Wellington, Ron Erlein, Bob Dahl, Larry Priest and Merv Odenbaugh, the team scored 18 points for a 93-point total. Team No. 5 is leading with 110 points. Team No. 6 has 94.

Team No. 8 scored 17 points last night and now has 90 points. Other teams are No. 3, No. 2, No. 4 and No. 1.

Low gross was Bill Heiskell with 33. Mike Harrison's 29 was low net.

contests were held Monday in front of the grandstand and the track was left in pretty ragged condition except close to the rail.

Cloninger Claims Rhythm Off After Beating Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"It felt like spring training," said winning pitcher Tony Cloninger after Cincinnati's 5-2 victory over Philadelphia Tuesday night which pushed the Reds into second place in National League standings.

He was referring mainly to the 112 pitches he threw during his seven innings.

"My rhythm's been off," he said, "and that's not so many pitches for me—considering I was out last season and did little pitching the first of this season."

Cloninger, gaining his third victory in nine decisions, said he "didn't know what kind of stuff I had when I went out there" because of his short lay-off of three days. "It was a workout, though." He gave up all four Phils' hits, two runs and walked five batters.

Manager Dave Bristol sent in reliever Clay Carroll when Cloninger bogged down in the eighth. The next three Philadelphia batters grounded out — but not before two runners crossed the plate.

The victory was the seventh straight for the Reds over the Phils and gave Cincinnati a 6-2 record for their last road trip. Cincinnati grabbed a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Tommy Helms was hit by starter Rick Wise's wild pitch and scored on singles by Chico Ruiz and Woody Woodward.

Then Johnny Bench hit a solo homer, his ninth of the season, in the fourth to give the Reds a two-run lead. Woodward got his second single of the game in the fifth and scored on Vada Pinson's single. Pete Rose, on with a walk, pushed the score 4-0 on Mack Jones' sacrifice fly. Lee May's single pushed across Pinson to close out the scoring.

Rose got two hits in three trips to the plate.

The Reds go against Pittsburgh tonight in a doubleheader at Cincinnati.

Hansen Has Triple Play

CLEVELAND (AP)— You wouldn't figure to find too many smiling faces in the Washington locker room after a 10-1 loss to Cleveland Tuesday night. There was one. Ron Hansen's.

He had an unassisted triple play.

"It just happened," the Senators' shortstop said. "It wasn't a pre-thought thing."

He became the eighth major league player ever to pull the play and the first in 41 years. John Neun, a first baseman for Detroit, and Chicago Cubs' shortstop Jim Cooney did it in 1927.

The Indians had men on first and second and the hit-and-run sign flashed in the first inning when Joe Azcue lined one down to Hansen.

He grabbed the liner, stepped on second to double Dave Nelson and got Russ Snyder coming down from first. Snyder knew he was caught and didn't even try to make it back.

Gibson's 2nd Shutout Skein Ends at 23

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer

Tony Cloninger hardly can afford the luxury.

Gibson's latest shutout string was severed at 23 innings Tuesday night but the St. Louis ace breezed past the New York Mets 7-1 for his 12th consecutive victory.

Meanwhile, Cincinnati's Cloninger, whose next shutout will be his first in two years, blanked Philadelphia on three hits for seven innings but had to settle for relief help and a 5-2 victory that sent the Reds into second place in the National League.

Cloninger, acquired from Atlanta in a trade last month after an injury-plagued 1967 flop with the Braves, failed to go the distance for the 17th time in as many starts this season.

Pittsburgh swept a two-night doubleheader from Atlanta 8-5 and 5-4 in 10 innings, dropping the slump-ridden Braves from the runner-up spot to third. Los Angeles edged Houston 3-2 and the Chicago Cubs trampled San Francisco 10-4.

Gibson checked the Mets on five hits, including a run-scoring double by Ed Kranepool in the fourth inning, in boosting his season mark to 15-5. Eight of his victories have been shutouts and he has allowed just three runs in 101 innings since June 2.

With an earned run average of .96, the 33-year-old fireballer is zeroing in on Grover Cleveland Alexander's all-time ERA mark of 1.22, set in 1915.

The Cardinals made it a cakewalk for Gibson Tuesday night by striking for five runs in the fourth inning, with Julian Javier's two-run single the key blow. The league leaders' 23rd victory in 29 games this month gave them a 14-game bulge over the Reds.

Rookie Johnny Bench cracked his ninth homer as Cincinnati staked Cloninger to a 5-0 lead over the floundering Phillies. But Tony Taylor opened the Phils' eighth with a single, then kicked the ball out to Woody Woodward's hand as the Cincy shortstop tried to start a double play on Roberto Pena's grounder. When Cloninger got behind Johnny Callison 2-0, Manager Dave Bristol yanked him. The Phillies went on to score twice against Clay Carroll before the reliever nailed Cloninger's third victory in nine decisions.

"Though he kept his pitches well under control, at the end he lost it," said Reds pitching coach Mel Harder of Cloninger's near-miss. "It's almost spring training for Tony since he hasn't pitched much this year or last year. It will take him a while to catch up."

It was the Reds' fourth straight victory and the 12th setback for the Phils in their last 14 games.

The Pirates extended Atlanta's losing string to five games when Matty Alou scampered home from third in the 10th inning of the nightcap as the Braves failed to turn over a double play on Manny Mota's hopper.

Pitcher Steve Blass stroked a two-run double in a six-run fourth inning salvo that decided the twilight opener. Catcher Jerry May drove in three Pittsburgh runs with singles in the fourth and fifth.

Bob Bailey drove in two Los Angeles runs with a double and single before Willie Davis tripled in the eighth and scored the clincher on Len Gabrielson's infield tap. The Astros closed the gap with a ninth inning run and chased winner Bill Singer before Jim Brewer came out of the bullpen to end it.

Adolfo Phillips golfed two home runs and Ron Santo, Ernie Banks and Billy Williams hit one apiece as the Cubs overpowered San Francisco. Willie McCovey slammed his 25th homer in the third, giving the Giants a 3-2 edge, but Banks' two-run homer and a three-run shot by Phillips put Chicago on top to stay in the bottom of the inning.

Bo Rein Helps

BALTIMORE (AP)—Former Ohio State halfback Bo Rein scored Tuesday night on a 39-yard pass play from quarterback Terry Southal to help the Baltimore Colts rookie team beat the New York Jets' rookies 27-14.

Rein is trying to make the Colts squad after a fling at minor league baseball.

Barnhill's Ends Unbeaten Season

Barnhill wrapped up its undefeated season Tuesday behind Biff Bumgarner's no-hitter as the Mosquito League champs shut out FOPA, 12-0.

The Cleaners won nine games in a row to cop the perfect season. Mac's finished the loop in second place with an 8-1 record. Third was Hummel and Plum at 7-2 on the strength of last night's 23-10 win over Hill Implement.

Bumgarner pitched seven of Barnhill's wins. Tuesday he struck out 16 batters. Losing pitcher Mogan fanned 13 and allowed 14 hits.

Bumgarner homered and tripled twice, adding a single for a four-for-four night. Jeff Funk doubled twice and singled twice in four trips. Jeff Brown, Eric Berger and Mike

Hummel and Plum, a team that hung in the thick of the league race until two losses to Barnhill and Mac's, blasted 15 hits off Hill pitcher D. Marshall.

Tony Crist homered twice. Bob Baranick and Tim Davis also poked four baggers. The three also tripled as did teammate Gary Combs. Steve Murray, Combs and Chuck Wellman doubled for the winners.

Baranick, Davis and Combs worked the mound route for the winners, walking 16, fanning 12 and allowing just two hits.

Upper Lansdowne Member Golf Tournament Starts

The first round of match play in the annual Upper Lansdowne member tournament is under way and must be completed Saturday according to Jack Hutchison, tourney manager.

Pairings have been made in the four flights of the event. However, it is the responsibility of the individual players to arrange a time convenient to both to complete matches.

Here is the complete list of the pairing in the tournament:

Championship Flight

Ron Leatherwood vs Bobby Welsh Jr., G. Peck vs C. Hanes, R. Buskirk vs E. Reeves, M. Binion vs R. L. Amey, G. Leatherwood vs W. Snyder, K. Leatherwood vs R. Bullock, J. Leatherwood vs P. E. Ott, J. Gregg vs G. Cox.

A Flight

H. Amey vs M. Neff, M. Seymour vs D. Robbins, J. List vs V. Gregg, B. Roof vs D.

Brown Eyes Chiefs Game On Saturday

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bengals Coach Paul Brown is making no predictions of how his American Football League charges will fare against Kansas City Saturday in an exhibition opener.

Noland Smith, a 5-6, 154-pound speedster, will be one of the starting flankers for the Kansas City Chiefs Saturday night.

The second Chiefs flanker in the offensive lineup is another speedster, Frank Pitts.

Otis Taylor, the regular, has finished a 2-week stint of military service, and may be ready for spot duty, Coach Hank Stram said.

Opening in the backfield, in addition to Smith, are quarterback Len Dawson, fullback Curtis McCClinton, and halfback Mike Garrett.

Hot Passing Seen Needed

CHICAGO (AP)— The College All-Stars, a 16-point underdog, has a potentially hot passing attack going for them against the mighty Green Bay Packers in the 35th All-Star football game Friday night.

Overall, the pros hold a 23-9-2 margin in the Soldier Field spectacle started in 1935. The last time the collegians won was in 1963 with a 20-17 shading of the Packers.

In other recent upsets, the All-Stars triumphed 35-19 over the Detroit Lions in 1958, after previously winning in 1955, nipping the Cleveland Browns 30-27, and—five seasons earlier—in 1950, by 17-7 over the Philadelphia Eagles.

If Norm Van Brocklin, former Minnesota Viking coach is to make a successful All-Star coaching debut Friday night, his quarterback duo of Gary Beban of UCLA and Greg Landry of Massachusetts probably will have to blaze away as successfully as Wisconsin's Ron Vander Kelen did in the 1963 derailling of the Packers and Michigan State's Jim Ninowski in the 1958 trimming of the Lions.

Kiwanis, GE Win BR Games

Kiwanis shht out Lindsey, 5-0, and General Electric bopped L. M. Butch, 11-5, in Babe Ruth League games Tuesday.

This ends play for the Babe Ruth League this season. Kiwanis took the championship with a record of 10-2. Lindsey is 7-5, GE is 6-6 and Butch is 1-11.

Don Valentine worked the distance for Kiwanis, walking nine, striking out 11 and allowing three hits. Dean Fausnaugh and Steve Thomas split duties for Lindsey, allowing five hits on 11 fans and five walks.

Dick Walters and Mike Fuller each doubled for the winners while Mike Hall had a two sacker for Lindsey.

Rick Blankenship and Bryce Brown combined to hurl the win for GE. Bill Thomas absorbed the loss for Butch. Glen Griebel went three-forthree for GE and Bill Keener doubled.

Campus Martius, owned and driven by R. L. Pugh of Whipple, moved into the lead in the first heat of the afternoon at the final turn after trailing Damita Rose for over three-quarters of a mile and won. Damita Rose finished third in the head, following Golden Jimmy under the wire.

In her second trip, Campus Martius was taken right to the front by Pugh and never trailed. Again Golden Jimmy was second while Miss Europe, owned by Bennett Junk of New Holland and driven by Jack Morgan, placed third.

The two-year-old pacer won in 2:11 in the first race and 2:12 her second time out.

Kid Bandit ran almost identical miles in the second and sixth heats of the afternoon, nosing under the wire in 2:11.2, the first time and 2:09 the second for a dual win.

Fred Peters, owner-driver from Barnesville, brought his entry to the head of the pack on the back stretch of the second lap both times, leading by the three-quarter pole and winning easily.

SECOND in both races was Luminous, owned and driven by R. G. Betts of Barnesville while Waving Tim, owned by L. P. Vallery and J. N. Hines of Waverly, finished third.

Sue Painter, owned by Don King Construction and driven by Dr. F. Hess, a Jackson County veterinarian, won both heats of

Blue Ribbon, Wards End With Wins

Blue Ribbon ended its season with a 10-4 record on a 16 - 5 win over Circleville Oil Tuesday in Little League Minors.

Wards dropped First National, 21-8, in another league tilt. Wards has a 7-7 season and First National and Circleville Oil are 2-12.

Brent Mancini struck out 12 and gave up three hits as Blue Ribbon routed Circleville Oil. Tom Strawser and Mancini poled homers and Herb Sturgell and Ernie O'Dell doubled for the winners.

Wards unleashed a 20-hit attack against First National. Chris Payne homered twice and Bruce Brudzinski homered. Randy Dean tripled twice and lone three sackers were recorded by Bruce Rodgers, Mike McDonald, Doug Winks and Brudzinski. Winks and Brudzinski doubled and Jeff Reichelderfer had a pair of two baggers.

BRUCE Rogers teamed up with Brudzinski to hurl the win, walking 12, fanning 10 and allowing two hits.

Doug McGlone and Jerry Large worked for First National, walking four and striking out six. Large doubled for half of First National's hits.

Time of the mile in the second heat of the race was 2:11.4. Hi Vo, with young Tom Ebenhack up, contested Sue Painter for the lead but finished second by half a length. Hi Vo had broken on the first lap of the first heat and finished sixth in that race.

Third in the second trip of the race was Heidy Way, owned and driven by Vinal Link of Sunbury.

Ebenhack's second was the best finish for a locally owned horse. Ty Borton, owned by Ed and Marjorie Callihan of Circleville finished seventh and eighth in the two heats of the second division of the first race.

ARTHUR Mace's Dooneys Do, with Paul Norris up, was fourth and fifth in the same race.

Norris also drove Pink Taffy, owned by Arthur Mace and Frank Rhoades of Circleville, finishing fifth and tenth in the two heats of the trot.

Cloninger Claims Rhythm Off After Beating Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"It felt like spring training," said winning pitcher Tony Cloninger after Cincinnati's 5-2 victory over Philadelphia Tuesday night which pushed the Reds into second place in National League standings.

He was referring mainly to the 112 pitches he threw during his seven innings.

"My rhythm's been off," he said, "and that's not so many pitches for me—considering I was out last season and did little pitching the first of this season."

Cloninger, gaining his third victory in nine decisions, said he "didn't know what kind of stuff I had when I went out there" because of his short lay-off of three days. "It was a workout, though." He gave up all four Phils' hits, two runs and walked five batters.

Manager Dave Bristol sent in reliever Clay Carroll when Cloninger bogged down in the eighth. The next three Philadelphia batters grounded out — but not before two runners crossed the plate.

The victory was the seventh straight for the Reds over the Phils and gave Cincinnati a 6-2 record for their last road trip. Cincinnati grabbed a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Tommy Helms was hit by starter Rick Wise's wild pitch and scored on singles by Chico Ruiz and Woody Woodward.

Then Johnny Bench hit a solo homer, his ninth of the season, in the fourth to give the Reds a two-run lead. Woodward got his second single of the game in the fifth and scored on Vada Pinson's single. Pete Rose, on with a walk, pushed the score 4-0 on Mack Jones' sacrifice fly. Lee May's single pushed across Pinson to close out the scoring.

Rose got two hits in three trips to the plate.

The Reds go against Pittsburgh tonight in a double-header at Cincinnati.

CLEVELAND (AP) — You wouldn't figure to find too many smiling faces in the Washington locker room after a 10-1 loss to Cleveland Tuesday night. There was one. Ron Hansen's.

He had an unassisted triple play.

"It just happened," the Senators' shortstop said. "It wasn't a pre-thought thing."

He became the eighth major league player ever to pull the play and the first in 41 years. John Neun, a first baseman for Detroit, and Chicago Cubs' shortstop Jim Cooney did it in 1927.

The Indians had men on first and second and the hit-and-run sign flashed in the first inning when Joe Azcue lined one down to Hansen.

He grabbed the liner, stepped on second to double Dave Nelson and got Russ Snyder coming down from first. Snyder knew he was caught and didn't even try to make it back.

Cleveland's 10-1 Win Sparkles

Ron Hansen of Washington pulled off the first unassisted triple play in the major leagues in 41 years, but it didn't take the Cleveland Indians long to get over it.

After falling victim to Hansen in the first inning Tuesday night, the Indians went on to build up an 8-0 lead by the end of the fifth en route to a 10-1 breeze over the Senators.

"It was an easy game—after we got eight runs ahead," joked Cleveland manager Al Dark.

The Detroit Tigers and Baltimore, who had no problems with triple plays, also had easy times as the American League race remained at the status quo.

Detroit rolled behind Earl Wilson's hitting and pitching to a 5-0 victory over the New York Yankees after the Orioles used six runs in the seventh inning to bomb Boston 8-3 in the afternoon.

The Tigers still lead the Orioles and Indians by seven games.

In the only other game, Oakland halted the Chicago White Sox' four-game winning streak with a 3-1 triumph.

Hansen got Cleveland off to a bad start after Dave Nelson singled and Russ Snyder walked in the first inning. Joe Azcue lined to the shortstop, who stepped on second to double Nelson, and then tagged Snyder coming from first base on the hit-and-run.

Only seven other players have accomplished the feat, the last two in 1927 when shortstop Jim Cooney of the Chicago Cubs and son's ninth triumph against eight losses.

Brooks Robinson broke a scoreless tie for Baltimore with a two-run single in the sixth inning and singled in another marker in the big seventh.

Jim Hardin, 13-6, stifled the Red Sox on four hits until Jose Tartabull singled in the eighth, Carl Yastrzemski doubled him home and Ken Harrelson whacked his 24th homer.

Sal Bando singled in a first inning run for Oakland after Bert Campaneris singled and stole second and third, and then Bando broke a 1-1 tie in the fifth with another single after Rick Monday tripled. Campaneris knocked in the final run in the sixth with another hit.

Gibson's 2nd Shutout Skein Ends at 23

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Gibson, who's been dealing almost exclusively in zeros for two months, shrugs off an occasional odd number on the scoreboard.

Tony Cloninger hardly can afford the luxury.

Gibson's latest shutout string was severed at 23 innings Tuesday night but the St. Louis ace breezed past the New York Mets 7-1 for his 12th consecutive victory.

Meanwhile, Cincinnati's Cloninger, whose next shutout will be his first in two years, blanked Philadelphia on three hits for seven innings but had to settle for relief help and a 5-2 victory that sent the Reds into second place in the National League.

Cloninger, acquired from Atlanta in a trade last month after an injury-plagued 1967 flop with the Braves, failed to go the distance for the 17th time in as many starts this season.

Pittsburgh swept a two-night doubleheader from Atlanta 8-5 and 5-4 in 10 innings, dropping the slump-ridden Braves from the runner-up spot to third. Los Angeles edged Houston 3-2, and the Chicago Cubs trampled San Francisco 10-4.

Gibson checked the Mets on five hits, including a run-scoring double by Ed Kranepool in the fourth inning, in boosting his season mark to 15-5. Eight of his victories have been shutouts and he has allowed just three runs in 101 innings since June 2.

With an earned run average of .96, the 33-year-old fireballer is zeroing in on Grover Cleveland Alexander's all-time ERA mark of 1.22, set in 1915.

The Cardinals made it a cakewalk for Gibson Tuesday night by striking for five runs in the fourth inning, with Julian Javier's two-run single the key blow. The league leaders' 23rd victory in 29 games this month gave them a 14-game bulge over the Reds.

Rookie Johnny Bench cracked his ninth homer as Cincinnati staked Cloninger to a 5-0 lead over the floundering Phillies. But Tony Taylor opened the Phils' eighth with a single, then kicked the ball out of Woody Woodward's hand as the Cincy shortstop tried to start a double play on Roberto Pena's ground-er.

When Cloninger got behind Johnny Callison 2-0, Manager Dave Bristol yanked him. The Phillies went on to score twice against Clay Carroll before the reliever nailed Cloninger's third victory in nine decisions.

"Though he kept his pitches well under control, at the end he lost it," said Reds pitching coach Mel Harder of Cloninger's near-miss. "It's almost spring training for Tony since he hasn't pitched much this year or last year. It will take him a while to catch up."

It was the Reds' fourth straight victory and the 12th setback for the Phils in their last 14 games.

The Pirates extended Atlanta's losing string to five games when Matty Alou scampered home from third in the 10th inning of the nightcap as the Braves failed to turn over a double play on Manny Mota's hopper.

Pitcher Steve Blass stroked a two-run double in a six-run fourth inning salvo that decided the twilight opener. Catcher Jerry May drove in three Pittsburgh runs with singles in the fourth and fifth.

Bob Bailey drove in two Los Angeles runs with a double and single before Willie Davis tripled in the eighth and scored the clincher on Len Gabrielson's infield tap. The Astros closed the gap with a ninth inning run and chased winner Bill Singer before Jim Brewer came out of the bullpen to end it.

Adolfo Phillips golfed two home runs and Ron Santo, Ernie Banks and Billy Williams hit one apiece as the Cubs overpowered San Francisco. Willie McCovey slammed his 25th homer in the third, giving the Giants a 3-2 edge, but Banks' two-run homer and a three-run shot by Phillips put Chicago on top to stay in the bottom of the inning.

Barnhill's Ends Unbeaten Season

Barnhill wrapped up its undefeated season Tuesday behind Biff Bumgarner's no-hitter as the Mosquito League champs shut out FOPA, 12-0.

The Cleaners won nine games in a row to cop the perfect season. Mac's finished the loop in second place with an 8-1 record. Third was Hummel and Plum at 7-2 on the strength of last night's 23-10 win over Hill Implement.

Bumgarner pitched seven of Barnhill's wins. Tuesday he struck out 16 batters. Losing pitcher Mogan fanned 13 and allowed 14 hits.

Bumgarner homered and tripled twice, adding a single for a four-for-four night. Jeff Funk doubled twice and singled twice in four trips. Jeff Brown, Eric Berger and Mike Wigglesworth all doubled.

BRET Brown had three hits in four at bats for the winners, who came up with their second no-hitter and third shut out of the season.

Hummel and Plum, a team that hung in the thick of the league race until two losses to Barnhill and Mac's, blasted 15 hits off Hill pitcher D. Marshall.

Tony Crist homered twice. Bob Baranick and Tim Davis also poked four baggers. The three also tripled as did teammate Gary Combs. Steve Murray, Combs and Chuck Wellman doubled for the winners.

Baranick, Davis and Combs worked the mound route for the winners, walking 16, fanning 12 and allowing just two hits.

Upper Lansdowne Member Golf Tournament Starts

The first round of match play in the annual Upper Lansdowne member tournament is under way and must be completed Saturday according to Jack Hutchison, tourney manager.

Pairings have been made in the four flights of the event. However, it is the responsibility of the individual players to arrange a time convenient to both to complete matches.

Here is the complete list of the pairing in the tournament:

Brown Eyes Chiefs Game On Saturday

CINCINNATI (AP)—Bengals Coach Paul Brown is making no predictions of how his American Football League charges will fare against Kansas City Saturday in an exhibition opener.

Brown is expected to trim the squad to 60 by Saturday.

Noland Smith, a 5-6, 154-pound speedster, will be one of the starting flankers for the Kansas City Chiefs Saturday night.

The second Chiefs flanker in the offensive lineup is another speedster, Frank Pitts.

Otis Taylor, the regular, has finished a 2-week stint of military service, and may be ready for spot duty, Coach Hank Stram said.

Opening in the backfield, in addition to Smith, are quarterback Len Dawson, fullback Curtis McClinton, and halfback Mike Garrett.

Hot Passing Seen Needed

CHICAGO (AP) — The College All-Stars, a 16-point underdog, has a potentially hot passing attack going for them against the mighty Green Bay Packers in the 35th All-Star football game Friday night.

Overall, the pros hold a 23-9-2 margin in the Soldier Field spectacle started in 1935. The last time the collegians won was in 1963 with a 20-17 shading of the Packers.

In other recent upsets, the All-Stars triumphed 35-19 over the Detroit Lions in 1958, after previously winning in 1955, nipping the Cleveland Browns 30-27, and—five seasons earlier—in 1950, by 17-7 over the Philadelphia Eagles.

If Norm Van Brocklin, former Minnesota Viking coach is to make a successful All-Star coaching debut Friday night, his quarterback duo of Gary Beban of UCLA and Greg Landry of Massachusetts probably will have to blaze away as successfully as Wisconsin's Ron Vander Kelen did in the 1963 derailling of the Packers and Michigan State's Jim Ninowski in the 1958 trimming of the Lions.

Kiwanis, GE Win BR Games

Kiwanis shnt out Lindsey, 5-0, and General Electric hopped L. M. Butch, 11-5, in Babe Ruth League games Tuesday.

This ends play for the Babe Ruth League this season. Kiwanis took the championship with a record of 10-2. Lindsey is 7-5, GE is 6-6 and Butch is 1-11.

Don Valentine worked the distance for Kiwanis, walking nine, striking out 11 and allowing three hits. Dean Fausnaugh and Steve Thomas split duties for Lindsey, allowing five hits on 11 fans and five walks.

Dick Walters and Mike Fuller each doubled for the winners while Mike Hall had a two sacker for Lindsey.

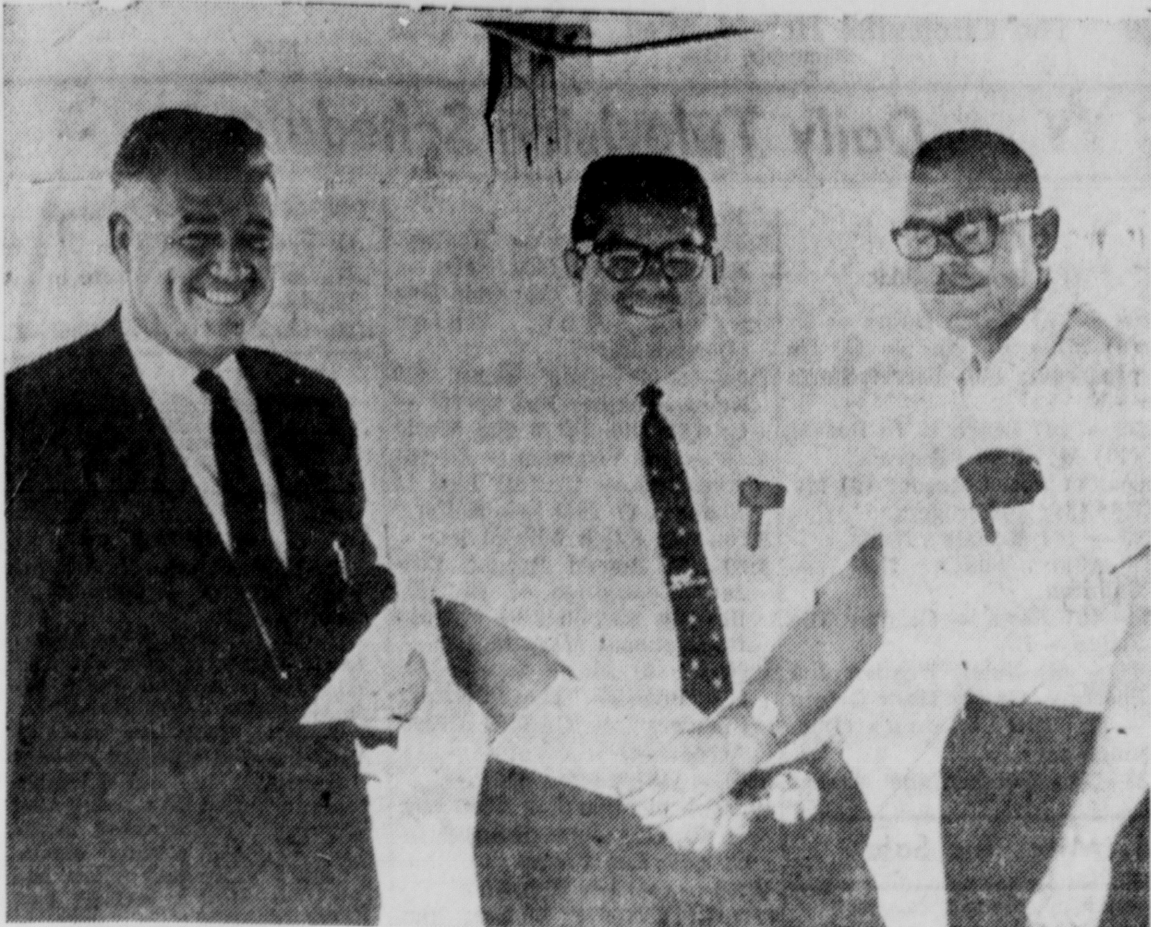

Rick Blankenship and Bryce Brown combined to hurl the win for GE. Bill Thomas absorbed the loss for Butch. Glen Griebel went three-forthree for GE and Bill Keener doubled.

Nab Xenia Escapees In Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Two young men who broke out of the Xenia City Jail in nearby Greene County over the weekend were captured Tuesday night by Dayton police.

The pair, Steve Gerlaugh, 18, and Frank Newsome, 20, both of Dayton, were caught after a two-hour chase, police reported.

Police first spotted the fugitives when they went to a house on Dayton's East End because of complaints about a noisy party there. The pair fled from the house when police recognized them, and the chase was on.

Gerlaugh and Newsome sawed through bars at the Xenia City Jail in their escape Sunday. On June 16 they had unsuccessfully tried to escape from the Greene County Jail.

They were arrested in Xenia June 12 on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. They also were wanted on several federal warrants, including one for a Kentucky post office robbery and for transporting stolen guns across state lines.

Exempted by the Senate were FBI agents and assistant U.S. attorneys.

Sen. John D. McClellan, D-Ark., proposed exemption of the FBI saying the country was depending on it for security during a period of turbulence.

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., tacked on the attorney's exemption, arguing that more prosecutions will be needed to handle cases brought by the FBI.

Postmaster Gen. W. Marvin Watson has said that if Congress does not approve an exemption for the Post Office by this weekend he will put into effect reduced weekend window-service hours and street-corner collections.

These are the first of a series of proposed postal cutbacks that eventually could lead to the shuttering of 12,000 small branches.

To get congressional approval of his 10 per cent income surcharge, President Johnson had to agree to a cut of $6 billion in federal spending.

The petition reportedly was created by the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association.

As part of this, all government agencies must cut back to their 1966 personnel levels. For the Post Office, this would mean a loss of 83,000 employees.

Domestic Scene Is Evans Topic

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — The keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention plans a 20-minute talk which will call for a higher priority for domestic problems.

In speeches which aides say were warmup sessions for the convention in Miami Beach starting Aug. 5, Washington Gov. Dan Evans has told Republicans "It is time now to reach inward, to reach down and touch the troubled spirit of America."

In a phrase he has been trying out for his Miami Beach speech, he describes the Republican philosophy as creating a "self-help society" and not a "help your-self society."

Violence-Torn Cities Report Normal Night

Minor Incidents Fail To Flare Into New Trouble

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Racial disorders slackened considerably Tuesday night in Gary, Ind., Peoria, Ill., and Seattle, Wash., which had been troubled by disturbances.

Richard G. Hatcher, the Negro mayor of Gary, reported "all is quiet" after a personal night tour of the city. Police reported scattered gunfire and rock throwing in two districts where youth gangs roamed the streets. No injuries were reported. Two youths were arrested for curfew violations.

Peoria had its quietest night of the week with vandalism and rock throwing virtually absent in the wake of a 9 p.m. curfew on the city's teen-agers. The Illinois National Guard had been put on alert but was not called out.

In Seattle's Negro district, two policemen suffered minor injuries during disorders, but authorities noted they were a far cry from Monday night's disturbances when eight patrolmen and two Negro youths were injured.

About two dozen persons, most of them juveniles, were arrested and eight adults were booked on charges of assault. In one four-block area, police used tear gas to break up milling street crowds. Some windows were broken in a junior high school. Several fire bombs were thrown but most failed to ignite, police reported.

Want Negroes In Riot Probe

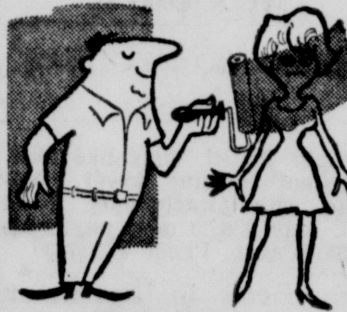

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The Akron Area Civil Liberties Union has urged Mayor John S. Ballard to appoint some Negroes from ghetto areas to his commission on civil disorders.

The commission was named Sunday and is composed of five white and five Negro community leaders.

Edwin Parms, president of the Akron branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the commission "especially omits the black youth and this is where the communications gap is."

Bill Melton Top Slugger

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Syracuse put Bill Melton in the No. 7 spot in its batting order for his International League baseball debut, but chances are excellent he'll bat a bit higher tonight.

Melton, a third baseman just up from Binghamton of the Class AA Eastern League, made his IL bow Tuesday. In his first time at bat, he hit a three-run homer. Later, he hit another home run with the bases empty. In between he collected a single. The net result was a 7-1 Chief victory at Jacksonville.

In other action, Toledo's league leaders continued to receive sensational pitching while blanking Louisville 2-0, Rochester whipped Richmond, 5-1, to take over second place, and Buffalo dumped Columbus from second to a tie for third by downing the Jets 6-2.

Dick Drago notched his 12th pitching victory for Toledo with a four-hitter, fanned 12 batters and faced only 30.

Want Ad Gets Results

NEW YORK (AP) — Stephen N. Delit got his girl through the New York Times.

Delit, 23, a romantic fellow from Flushing, Queens, placed the following ad in Tuesday's Times to celebrate the 23rd birthday of his fiancée, Ellen J. Richter:

"E.J.R. Happy birthday. I love you. Will you marry me?" S.N.D."

"I thought it would be romantic in an age of unromanticism," explained Delit, a high school math teacher, "especially in such a staid paper as the Times."

Miss Richter was equal to the occasion. Upon reading the two-line ad at the bottom of the front page of the second section, she promptly placed a reply running in the same place in today's edition. It reads:

"S.N.D. I love you too. Yes I will. E.J.R."

Cincinnati Gets Hockey Franchise

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Officials of the International Hockey League meeting here Tuesday granted a contingent franchise to Cincinnati, Ohio, for the eighth team in the league.

The franchise is contingent upon Cincinnati team backers providing a suitable facility for hockey contests. The league will meet Saturday to hear from Cincinnati representatives and make a final decision.

Bomb Blast Hits British LA Consulate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A bomb explosion which authorities believe may have been triggered by anti-Castro Cubans has caused extensive damage to the British consulate offices.

The blast tore through the consulate Tuesday at 7:10 p.m., an hour after the 26 employees went home for the day. No one was injured and there was no fire, police reported.

The consulate offices are on the fourth floor of a Wilshire Boulevard building. Occupants of the building were quickly evacuated and police sped officers to the offices and homes of other consuls.

Police said the outside corridor and door leading to the office were wrecked. Furnishings were overturned, and glass and other objects were strewn about the floor.

Authorities said anti-Castro terrorists may have placed the bomb in retaliation for Britain's relations with the Castro government.

Amendment to Foreign Aid Bill Called a 'Cruel Hoax'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has approved an amendment to its foreign aid bill which sponsors say could help gain the release of the USS Pueblo's crew, but which critics term "a cruel hoax ... silly and meaningless."

The amendment was added by a 43-29 vote to the pending $1.94-billion bill Tuesday.

It would withdraw, until North Korea releases the 82 crewmen seized last January, presidential authority to make exceptions to an existing law barring U.S. aid to Communist nations.

The President can authorize such aid if he thinks it vital to U.S. security, if the recipient nation is not controlled "by an international Communist conspiracy" and if the aid would spur the receiver toward independence from the Communist bloc.

The aid authorization has been cut more than $1 billion below President Johnson's requests.

Proposals to restore some of the funds for aid to underdeveloped countries were given little chance of success in today's session in the face of the current economy drive in Congress.

Sen. Peter Dominick, R-Colo., sponsored the Pueblo amendment.

He said the State Department had done nothing thus far to obtain release of the crewmen "except ask for their return."

"It is time we exercised some pressure," he said, predicting his approach would pressure Communist countries dealing with North Korea to seek release of the crewmen.

But acting Chairman John Sparkman, D-Ala., of the Foreign Relations Committee, argued the amendment was a "cruel hoax" that would end in nothing but false hopes for the families of the prisoners.

Sen. Joseph Clark, D-Pa., said the Dominick proposal was "silly and meaningless."

OFFICIALS — Discussing the racing at the Pickaway County Fair Tuesday were from the left, Robert Steele, presiding judge; Roger Huston, announcer; John Fissell, race secretary.

GETTING READY — Harlow Arledge, chairman of the speed committee of the Pickaway County Fair, has his hands full getting the track ready for the races after the tractor pull. He had a "fast" track by posttime.

OFF AND RUNNING — Head start instructor Nancy Dye leads her class toward the midway while visiting the Pickaway County Fair Tuesday morning. Children toured the livestock barns, rode the merry-go-round and were treated to an ice cream cone.

Conference Committee Gets Post Office Manpower Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to exempt the Post Office from government manpower cutbacks has been sent to a House-Senate conference committee which must act before Friday to avert the first in a series of postal service reductions.

The House approved the bill Monday while the Senate was adding more exemptions to the manpower cutbacks mandated by the recently passed 10 per cent income surtax bill.

Exempted by the Senate were FBI agents and assistant U.S. attorneys.

Sen. John D. McClellan, D-Ark., proposed exemption of the FBI saying the country was depending on it for security during a period of turbulence.

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., tacked on the attorney's exemption, arguing that more prosecutors will be needed to handle cases brought by the FBI.

Postmaster Gen. W. Marvin Watson said that if Congress does not approve an exemption for the Post Office by this weekend he will put into effect reduced weekend window-service hours and street-corner collections.

These are the first of a series of proposed postal cutbacks that eventually could lead to the shuttering of 12,000 small branches.

To get congressional approval of his 10 per cent income surcharge, President Johnson had to agree to a cut of $6 billion in federal spending.

River Downs Grievances Set

CINCINNATI (AP) — A petition "listing grievances about conduct of racing and conditions at River Downs" has been signed by approximately 175 horsemen who threaten to take their grievances to Gov. James A. Rhodes, the Cincinnati Enquirer said today.

The petition reportedly was created by the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association.

As part of this, all government agencies must cut back to their 1966 personnel levels. For the Post Office, this would mean a loss of 83,000 employees.

Domestic Scene Is Evans Topic

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — The keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention plans a 20-minute talk which will call for a higher priority for domestic problems.

In speeches which aides say were warmup sessions for the convention in Miami Beach starting Aug. 5, Washington Gov. Dan Evans has told Republicans "It is time now to reach inward, to reach down and touch the troubled spirit of America."

In a phrase he has been trying out for his Miami Beach speech, he describes the Republican philosophy as creating a "self-help society" and not a "help yourself society."

Violence-Torn Cities Report Normal Night

Minor Incidents Fail To Flare Into New Trouble

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Racial disorders slackened considerably Tuesday night in Gary, Ind., Peoria, Ill., and Seattle, Wash., which had been troubled by disturbances.

Richard G. Hatcher, the Negro mayor of Gary, reported "all is quiet" after a personal night tour of the city. Police reported scattered gunfire and rock throwing in two districts where youth gangs roamed the streets. No injuries were reported. Two youths were arrested for curfew violations.

Peoria had its quietest night of the week with vandalism and rock throwing virtually absent in the wake of a 9 p.m. curfew on the city's teen-agers. The Illinois National Guard had been put on alert but was not called out.

In Seattle's Negro district, two policemen suffered minor injuries during disorders, but authorities noted they were a far cry from Monday night's disturbances when eight patrolmen and two Negro youths were injured.

About two dozen persons, most of them juveniles, were arrested and eight adults were booked on charges of assault. In one four-block area, police used tear gas to break up milling street crowds. Some windows were broken in a junior high school. Several fire bombs were thrown but most failed to ignite, police reported.

Want Negroes In Riot Probe

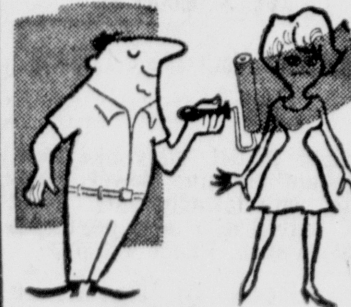

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The Akron Area Civil Liberties Union has urged Mayor John S. Ballard to appoint some Negroes from ghetto areas to his commission on civil disorders.

The commission was named Sunday and is composed of five white and five Negro community leaders.

Edwin Parns, president of the Akron branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the commission "especially omits the black youth and this is where the communications gap is."

Bill Melton Top Slugger

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Syracuse put Bill Melton in the No. 7 spot in its batting order for his International League baseball debut, but chances are excellent he'll bat a bit higher tonight.

Melton, a third baseman just up from Binghamton of the Class AA Eastern League, made his IL bow Tuesday. In his first time at bat, he hit a three-run homer. Later, he hit another home run with the bases empty. In between he collected a single. The net result was a 7-1 Chief victory at Jacksonville.

In other action, Toledo's league leaders continued to receive sensational pitching while blanking Louisville 2-0, Rochester whipped Richmond, 5-1, to take over second place, and Buffalo dumped Columbus from second to a tie for third by downing the Jets 6-2.

Dick Drago notched his 12th pitching victory for Toledo with a four-hitter, fanned 12 batters and faced only 30.

Bill Bryan, who was sent down from Washington last week, ignited a four-run inning for Buffalo with a leadoff home run in the Bisons' victory over Columbus. Lefty Dave Roberts, now 11-4, was the Jet loser.

Bomb Blast Hits British LA Consulate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A bomb explosion which authorities believe may have been triggered by anti-Castro Cubans has caused extensive damage to the British consulate offices.

The blast tore through the consulate Tuesday at 7:10 p.m., an hour after the 26 employees went home for the day. No one was injured and there was no fire, police reported.

The consulate offices are on the fourth floor of a Wilshire Boulevard building. Occupants of the building were quickly evacuated and police sped officers to the offices and homes of other consuls.

Police said the outside corridor and door leading to the office were wrecked. Furnishings were overturned, and glass and other objects were strewn about the floor.

Authorities said anti-Castro terrorists may have placed the bomb in retaliation for Britain's relations with the Castro government.

Roelblants May Miss Big Games

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Gaston Roelblants, Belgium's track star, may not be able to compete in the Olympic Games at Mexico City in October because of an injury to his knee.

Dr. Rolf Ljungqvist said Tuesday Roelblants had an extravasation in one knee. This is a discharge from a blood vessel into the tissues.

Archers Shoot In California

SALINAS, Calif. (AP) — One world record fell Tuesday as 300 archers from the United States and Mexico shot through the first day of the National Field Archery Association Championships.

Mike Palmer of Houston shot an 886 in the Open Class A Bowhunter Division to better the 885 set last year at Jackson, Miss., by Chuck Ingram of Dallas.

"HI, COW! I SEE YOU" — Two-and-a-half year old Ken Wellington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wellington, Worthington, natives of Circleville, brought his binoculars to the Pickaway County Fair for a better look at the sights. He showed special interest in the cows when he crept up to the pen and shouted, "Hi, cows!"

Amendment to Foreign Aid Bill Called a 'Cruel Hoax'

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has approved an amendment to its foreign aid bill which sponsors say could help gain the release of the USS Pueblo's crew, but which critics term "a cruel hoax ... silly and meaningless."

The amendment was added by a 43-29 vote to the pending $1.94-billion bill Tuesday.

It would withdraw, until North Korea releases the 82 crewmen seized last January, presidential authority to make exceptions to an existing law barring U.S. aid to Communist nations.

The President can authorize such aid if he thinks it vital to U.S. security, if the recipient nation is not controlled "by an international Communist conspiracy" and if the aid would spur the receiver toward independence from the Communist bloc.

The aid authorization has been cut more than $1 billion below President Johnson's requests.

Proposals to restore some of the funds for aid to underdeveloped countries were given little chance of success in today's session in the face of the current economy drive in Congress.

He said the State Department had done nothing thus far to obtain release of the crewmen "except ask for their return."

"It is time we exercised some pressure," he said, predicting his approach would pressure Communist countries dealing with North Korea to seek release of the crewmen.

But acting Chairman John Sparkman, D-Ala., of the Foreign Relations Committee, argued the amendment was a "cruel hoax" that would end in nothing but false hopes for the families of the prisoners.

Sen. Joseph Clark, D-Pa., said the Dominican proposal was "silly and meaningless."

Nab Xenia Escapees In Dayton

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Two young men who broke out of the Xenia City Jail in nearby Greene County over the weekend were captured Tuesday night by Dayton police.

The pair, Steve Gerlaugh, 18, and Frank Newsome, 20, both of Dayton, were caught after a two-hour chase, police reported.

Police first spotted the fugitives when they went to a house on Dayton's East End because of complaints about a noisy party there. The pair fled from the house when police recognized them, and the chase was on.

Gerlaugh and Newsome saved through bars at the Xenia City Jail in their escape Sunday. On June 16 they had unsuccessfully tried to escape from the Greene County Jail.

They were arrested in Xenia June 12 on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. They also were wanted on several federal warrants, including one for a Kentucky post office robbery and for transporting stolen guns across state lines.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Sealed proposals for Contract No. 643 will be received at the office of the Pickaway County Commissioners, located in the City of Circleville, Ohio, until 12:00 Noon E.D.S.T., on Thursday, August 15th, 1968, and at 1:30 P.M. E.D.S.T. of the same day said proposals will be publicly opened and read for the construction of the south abutment and roadway approaches, for structure No. 8, Road No. 102, over Yellow Bud Creek, being located in Wayne Township, Pickaway County, Ohio.

The successful bidder shall furnish all labor and materials and equipment necessary to complete the work. All work done and all material furnished shall comply with applicable sections of the Construction and Material Specifications, State of Ohio, Department of Highways in effect on January 1st, 1965, and subject to the approval of the County Engineer.

Plans and specifications are on file in the office of the County Commissioners and the County Engineer, Commissioners of Pickaway County. Proposals are to be submitted on standard proposal forms obtained from the office of the County Engineer.

All parties bidding shall deposit with their proposal bond or certified check on some solvent bank in the amount of five per cent (5 per cent) of their bid made payable to said County. The five per cent (5 per cent) deposit is to be used as liquidated damages in the event the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into written contract and furnish acceptable bond within ten days from the date of awarding said contract to him.

The Contractor shall employ local labor in performing this work in as far as possible.

The Board of County Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

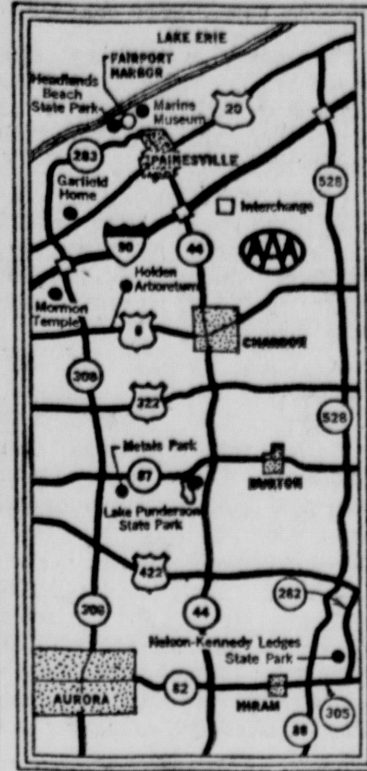

This notice to Contractors is in compliance with Section 307.87 Revised Code of Ohio.

By order of the Board of County Commissioners of Pickaway County, Ohio.

Northeastern State Parks Display Wide Variety

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of short trips to top Ohio travel attractions prepared for the Circleville Herald by the Columbus Auto Club Travel Department.

Ohio's many state parks appeal to varied recreational interests, and three parks less than an hour apart just east of Cleveland are good examples of the diversity.

If swimming is tops on the list, Headlands Beach Park on Ohio 283, near Painesville, has an excellent mile-long sandy Lake Erie beach. More than $1-million in improvements have been added this year, including bathers' and concession buildings, roadway construction and parking areas.

For an overnight stay, or even a week or more, Punderson Lake Park on Ohio 87, offers the 32-room Manor House and 26 vacation cabins, with adjoining swimming pool.

And for nature walks, hiking and exercise, try Nelson-Kennedy Ledges Park on Ohio 282. One of the smallest (167 acres) and most unusual in the park system, it is almost entirely rocks, caves and gorges and crossed by small flowing streams. Marked trails follow over, under and around the huge rocks.

All three parks have picnic areas, while Punderson, the most conventional and with one of the few natural lakes in Ohio, also has a golf course, tennis courts and boating.

In between parks are numerous other attractions, like the largest geodesic dome in the U.S. (103 feet high, 274 feet wide) at Metals Park on Ohio 87, which houses the headquarters of the American Society for Metals.

The first Mormon Temple in the nation is near Kirtland on Ohio 306, and is open without charge from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. daily, and 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays. East on U.S. 6, on Sperry Rd., is Holden Arboretum, where trees, shrubs and flowers are in constant bloom. Hours are 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily.

At Mentor, on U.S. 20, is Lawfield, home of James A. Garfield, 20th U.S. President. Restored and authentically furnished, it has a museum of mementos, plus a replica of the log cabin which was Garfield's birthplace. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Sundays and holidays.

At Fairport Harbor is the Marine Museum, in a former lighthouse keeper's dwelling and next to the lighthouse tower. It is open Wednesday, Sunday and holidays from 2 to 5 p.m. AAA suggests this route to the tour area. From Circleville, go north on U.S. 23 to Jct. with I-270; west on I-270 to Jct. with I-71, north on I-71 to Jct. with Ohio Turnpike; east on Turnpike to Exit 12; then north on Ohio Route 8 to Ohio Route 82; east on Ohio Route 82 to the tour area.

Western Open Set Thursday Near Chicago

CHICAGO (AP) — The pro golfing clan is saying Arnold Palmer is about ready to win a big one.

So, this is notice that Arnie's Army can start warming up its cheers. Arnie, Tom Weiskopf, the leading money winner, and defending champion Jack Nicklaus are favorites in the 65th Western Open starting Thursday.

Historic Olympia Fields just south of Chicago—where such greats as Walter Hagen, Bobby Jones and Tommy Armour once matched shots—is well adapted for siege gun hitters like the favored trio.

The greens are true and hold like fly paper; you can let out the shaft on most of the fairways although drives will require spotting because of some narrowness and traps; and there are a lot of out-of-bounds hazards and enough trees to start a lumber camp.

The north course stretches 6,749 yards with a 35-36-71 par. The late Lawson Little set the official course record of 65 during the 1940 U.S. Open qualifying trials.

If Julius Boros' putter remains hot, the old coddler again could be the surprise package.

He recently became the oldest player ever to win the National PGA-age 48. Until then, Jerry Barber, 45, had held that niche.

Weiskopf tops the money list with $137,061. He has won the San Diego and Flint Open, has been second twice, third three times and fourth once.

Gibson Pitches 12th Straight Win

NEW YORK (AP)—Ed Krane-pool is one of a vanishing breed—he drove in a run against Bob Gibson of St. Louis. But as usual, it didn't do any good.

Gibson won his 12th straight game as the National League-leading Cardinals beat the New York Mets 7-1.

Krane-pool doubled home Ed Charles, who had singled in the fourth inning for only the second RBI and third run scored off Gibson in 101 innings. Denis Menke of Houston drove in the other run July 12, and the third scored on a wild pitch.

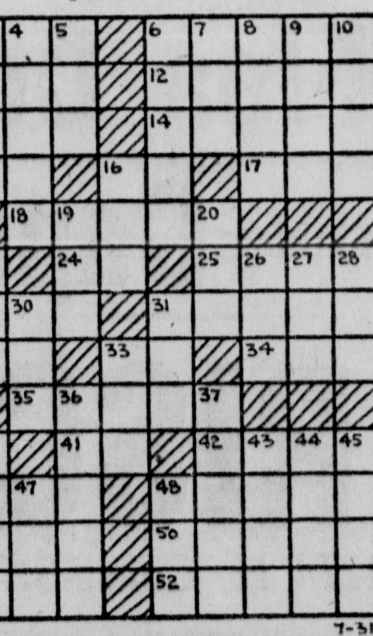

Gibson, whose 15-5 record includes eight shutouts and 13 complete games, has achieved just about every major pitching record except a no-hitter.

Big Lama To Run

YONKER, N.Y. (AP) — Big Lama, a 6-year-old chestnut stallion from Sweden, accepted an invitation today to compete in both the $50,000 Gotham Trot and $50,000 Nations Trot at Yonkers Raceway Aug. 15 and Aug. 22, respectively.

Nixon Studies All - Out Try for 1st - Ballot Victory

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon's top strategists now favor a risky, all-out attempt to win the Republican presidential nomination on the first ballot when the GOP convention votes one week from today.

The former vice president will make the final decision himself early next week on whether to attempt to grab off the nomination at the first chance or play it cool for a second ballot opportunity.

There are some out-sized political risks involved in a blitz attempt. Failure conceivably could cost Nixon the nomination.

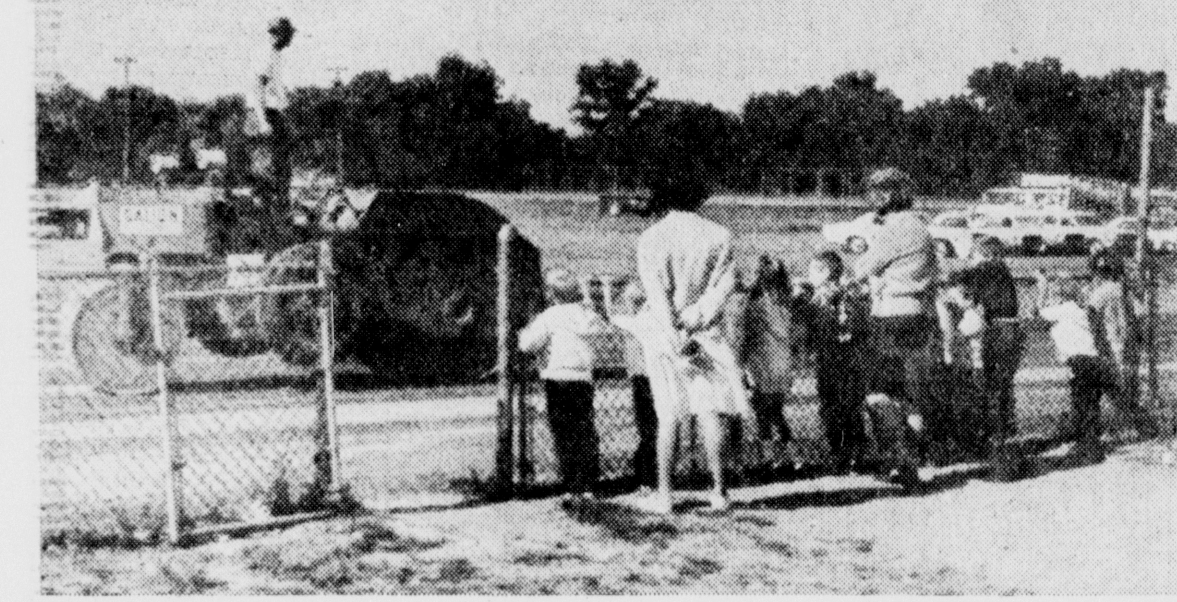

The tactical move would involve riding roughshod over favorite son candidates who might be more amenable to supporting Nixon after they have had a moment of glory on national television with formal nomination for the nation's highest office.

Beyond this, however, lies the political desire of these heads of state delegations to claim they supplied the necessary votes for the nomination of the party's standard bearer when he needed them.

A first-ballot victory would

Soviet - Czech Talks Drag On; Optimism Expressed

PRAGUE (AP) — One of Czechoslovakia's leading Communist reformers reported today that the crucial talks between the Soviet Politburo and the Czechoslovak party Presidium are taking a "promising course."

"The atmosphere is optimistic," said National Assembly Chairman Josef Smrkovsky in Rude Pravo, the Czechoslovak party newspaper.

The leaders of the two parties met for the third day today to the martial accompaniment of record Soviet military maneuvers. The talks continued at least one day longer than expected as the Soviets sought to develop evidence of discord among the Czechoslovaks.

Talks between the top-ranking leaders of the two parties, which had been expected to end Tuesday, were extended after the Soviets insisted that each member of both delegations have a chance to state his personal views on the liberalization subject Nixon to charges that "bosses" had chosen the nominee without free consideration by the delegates of whether he was the man most likely to win in November.

The arguments against this put forth by the Nixon advisers were simple: No contender bows to protocol if the nomination is within his grasp. Nixon won all of the GOP primaries and thus is the popular choice of a majority of delegates.

Backers of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller indicated they hope Nixon puts all of his chips on the line at the start.

William E. Miller, former party national chairman and the 1964 nominee for vice president, said the Governor's camp is ready to combat alternate strategy moves by Nixon.

Both sides agreed privately that the key individuals involved in this tug of war are Govs. Ronald Reagan of California, George Romney of Michigan, James A. Rhodes of Ohio and Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland.

On the Democratic side, meanwhile, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy scoffed at the proposal by his presidential rival, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, to release delegates from unit rules — and said they should be released from favorite sons.

"He has only released about eight (delegates)," McCarthy said Tuesday. "I'd be happy to release eight."

McCarthy said release of the large number of delegates committed to favorite sons on the first ballot is as necessary to an open Democratic National Convention as repeal of unit rules.

All members of state delegations with unit rules are bound to vote for their delegation's majority preference, at least on the first ballot.

Mexican Students Continue Rampage Through Capital

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico City was a battle ground again Tuesday as mobs of young people ran wild through the city, fighting police, wrecking city buses and throwing rocks and bottles.

At least one person was dead, more than 400 were injured and at least 1,100 persons had been arrested since antigovernment rioting began last Friday.

Officials claimed the riots were Communist inspired and said they were the worst Mexico's capital has experienced in 20 years.

Tuesday night club-wielding students braved a heavy rain and hijacked four city buses after forcing terrified passengers to flee. Then they ran the vehicles into the sides of buildings.

Earlier, Army troops fired volleys of shots into the air and dispersed the students. The troops were withdrawn, but the mobs returned, marching from the old university section, and seized the buses near the city's central square.

Riot squads swinging long batons dispersed that crowd, but at least 3,000 of the youths gathered half a mile away near a teacher's college. Their leaders used bugle calls and walkie talkies to control them. They swarmed over buses and a trolley car, smashing windows and running the vehicles onto the sidewalks.

At one point all four intersections around the park in front of the school were blocked by the wrecked buses.

Two busloads of riot police sped to the scene. The students fled and the police were again withdrawn.

The violence mainly involved prep school students from 14 to 18 years of age. The disorders began last Friday with a proand the Johnson administration's Department of Agriculture today of not adequately responding "to the severe problems of hunger and malnutrition we know exist in America."

Humphrey, in a speech prepared for the National Association of Counties meeting in Washington, also said the nation needs "a strong president."

"One strong enough," he continued, "to shake up the federal bureaucracy and hammer out a structure which rewards, not frustrates, local innovation and responsibility."

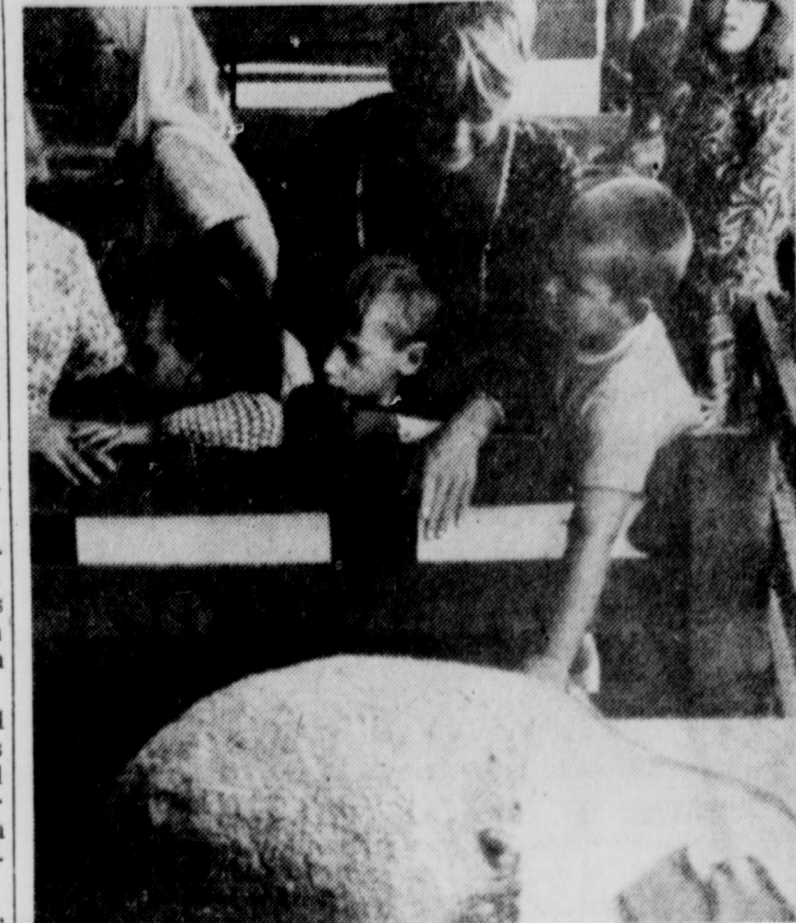

In other political developments:

—Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., has won renomination in Tuesday's Arkansas primaries over stiff opposition. Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller won renomination easily.

—Third party presidential candidate George C. Wallace's supporters say they have filed 7,000 more than the 61,236 petition signatures needed to get on Massachusetts' November ballot.

—Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., says his so-called national favorite-son candidacy is only a "rallying point" for delegates pledged to the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy to remain a block. He says the possibility of he or any other dark horse winning the Democratic presidential nomination is "very, very unlikely."

—The White House says President Johnson has not made up his mind whether to attend the Democratic National Convention which begins Aug. 26, Johnson's birthday, in Chicago.

The leaders of the two parties met for the third day today to the martial accompaniment of record Soviet military maneuvers. The talks continued at least one day longer than expected as the Soviets sought to develop evidence of discord among the Czechoslovaks.

Talks between the top-ranking leaders of the two parties, which had been expected to end Tuesday, were extended after the Soviets insisted that each member of both delegations have a chance to state his personal views on the liberalization

The Soviets presumably hoped to draw out dissident members of the 11-man Czechoslovak party Presidium attending the conference that began Monday in the tiny farming village of Cierna, in Slovakia one mile from the Russian border.

The Russian Politburo delegation, headed by party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, is reported to have demanded a reversal of Czechoslovakia's new course and the right to station Soviet or other Communist bloc troops on Czechoslovak territory.

Three members of the Czechoslovak delegation who are considered possible opponents of party chief Alexander Dubcek's reformist course are Vasil Bilak, chief of the Slovak Communist party; Oldrich Svestka, editor-in-chief of the party newspaper Rude Pravo, and economist Drahomir Kolder. However, pro-Dubcek sources said these three had swung firmly behind Dubcek because of the widespread popular support for him and the threats of Soviet military intervention.

The meeting Tuesday was described by Tass, the Soviet news agency, as having "passed in an atmosphere of frankness and comradeship." The Czechoslovak news agency, CTK, also said the talks continued "in an atmosphere of comradely frankness."

In Communist terminology, "frankness" is understood to mean differences of opinion. The coupling with "comradeship" was taken to mean that despite disagreement, there were no threats of drastic action at the meeting.

Earlier, Army troops fired volleys of shots into the air and dispersed the students. The troops were withdrawn, but the mobs returned, marching from the old university section, and seized the buses near the city's central square.

Riot squads swinging long batons dispersed that crowd, but at least 3,000 of the youths gathered half a mile away near a teacher's college. Their leaders used bugle calls and walkie talkies to control them. They swarmed over buses and a trolley car, smashing windows and running the vehicles onto the sidewalks.

At one point all four intersections around the park in front of the school were blocked by the wrecked buses.

Two busloads of riot police sped to the scene. The students fled and the police were again withdrawn.

The violence mainly involved prep school students from 14 to 18 years of age. The disorders began last Friday with a pro-
